Walker Derails Partney-Allen Patronage Plan

Efforts to use Governor Dan Walker and state patronage in Mayor Donald Partney's reelection campaign failed and a patronage meeting Thursday night was canceled, James Keenan of the Paul Schuler campaign committee said yesterday.

The mayor and Alderman Schuler are candidates for the mayor office tomorrow's Granite City municipal election. Governor Walker in a visit to Granite City Steel Co. Thursday afternoon was asked by Keenan and Weldon Burch whether Richard Allen was right in implying Walker favors Partney. They said the governor replied that he is taking no stand regarding the Granite City mayor election.

To show his neutrality, Walker permitted himself to be photographed together with Candidates Schuler and Partney while they were in a discussion. He said the picture could be utilized as long as there was no statement that he favors either candidate.

Attorney Allen, Partney campaign manager, signed an advertisement March 29 appealing to "all Walker supporters" to "elect Don Partney." Partney endorsed then Gov. Richard Ogilvie in the 1972 state election.

Allen has been claiming influence over the distribution of state jobs. He served as a member of a "truth squad" which backed Walker and opposed Lieutenant Governor Paul Stevenson in the 1972 Democratic gubernatorial primary.

A Feb. 9 letter by Allen to Democratic precinct committeemen related that "in the near future, we are going to have a get-together with various members of the city committee."

"I know that we as committeemen are being recruited and pursued by different candidates for office in the coming city and township election," Allen continued, "is that you not recumbent to the blandishments of any candidate until you have had an opportunity to examine all sides of the question. "Of course, as you know, it is desirable whenever possible that a committeeman support a winner—and that, in the process, is able to advance his own political cause."

"It is also desirable and sometimes essential that we be able to put in the field all of our workers in a manner in which they are completely satisfied. "Nothing succeeds like success and nothing helps the committeeman like satisfied workers."

"Therefore, what I am asking is that you don't commit yourself to any candidate until you have had an opportunity to listen to all of the candidates."

A March 27 letter to the committeemen said, "There will be a meeting Thursday, March 29, at 8 p.m. at Charlie's Restaurant to explain the manner in which the filling of state jobs will be handled under the Walker administration."

"As you know, the submission of a job application to the Madison County Democratic Central Committee no longer suffices. "Present will be members of Governor Walker's campaign staff who will explain the offer being made to insure that state jobs are distributed on a fair basis."

"If you know of anyone who is interested in securing employment with the state, or if you are interested in serving on the Patronage Committee, you would be well advised to attend the above meeting."

When the governor asserted his neutrality, arrangements for Thursday night's patronage meeting were dropped.

Gov. Walker said the only mayor race on which he will voice an opinion is that in Alton, where he endorsed Clyde H. Wiseman Jr., a former mayor running against Mayor Paul A. Leitz.

The governor told the Granite Cityans he has a "special reason" for endorsing Wiseman and that the reason does not appear to Granite City.

3rd New Sewer Break

Another sewer break—the third in the past three weeks—was reported by Granite City Street Superintendent Lionel Portell Friday as street department workers began efforts to dewater the area around an earlier break in a sanitary sewer line from St. Elizabeth School.

Portell said the new break is on Jill Avenue between Wayne and Aubrey avenues. The other two breaks are in the sanitary line from St. Elizabeth School, one at Johnson Road and the other about 200 feet west of that break.

A high water table has prevented workers from making repairs. Use of a 1,000 gallon per minute pump failed to lower the water table a week ago, causing Portell to switch to the use of well points rented from an Oklahoma City firm. About 40 of the points were driven Thursday afternoon and pumping operations were begun Friday.

Portell said the water table is reached at a depth of about eight feet. The sewer lines which must be reached to make repairs are from 12 to 15 deep.

If use of the well points prove successful in lowering the water table at the break in the St. Elizabeth School sewer, they will be moved to the other breaks for the same purpose, Portell said.

Civic Leader Emanuel A. Friedman, 78, Dies

Emanuel A. Friedman, 78, of 1620 Fourth St., Madison, vice-president of Friedman's furniture and hardware store in Madison and an active leader for more than a half-century, died at 12:30 p.m. Saturday at St. Elizabeth Hospital following a short illness.

He was admitted to the hospital Friday after suffering an apparent heart attack.

He was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and resided here nearly all his life.

He founded the furniture and hardware store with his late father, William Friedman, in 1922, and had remained active there through Thursday evening.

An infantry second lieutenant in World War I, E. A. Friedman was a graduate of Madison High School and of Washington University. He received a law degree and for a time was a practicing attorney.

He was a past service officer and charter member of Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307, and a past president and charter member of the Madison Rotary Club, in which he had continued an active role.

Mr. Friedman for nine years was president of the former United Hebrew Congregation of Madison. He was the organizer and for many years president of the Madison Parents' Teacher Association.

In 1932, he headed the National Recovery Act program in Madison. Civil defense director of Madison during World War II, he later served as the city's director of natural disaster services.

A member of B'nai B'rith, Mr. Friedman was active in the Boy Scout program, serving on the council board, and was prominent in retail and civic organizations.

Holding 59-year membership in Masonic Lodge 835, he also was a member of the Shrine and Scottish Rite.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Hannah R. Friedman; a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack (Bernice) Friedman, University City; three

An Editorial

A point Mayor Donald Partney attempted to make in a handbill distributed Saturday is that this is a "one-paper town" and that the Press-Record has not covered the campaign fairly.

The allegation deserves an answer because, if true, it would be a legitimate basis for complaint.

In checking back through the file of past issues, we find ample evidence to dispute his charge, which was made a short time after we had endorsed his opponent in tomorrow's mayor election, Alderman Paul Schuler.

The record shows just the opposite of what Mr. Partney began contending so suddenly.

We followed an objective and lenient approach to the campaign dialogue, leaning far over backward to be fair to both candidates. Even when the mayor had nothing much new to say, we let him say it in great detail.

If anything, because Mr. Partney issued more statements, he had the better of it in the coverage—including such yardsticks as the size of headlines, the length of articles and their placement in the newspaper.

This provable record of fairness by the Press-Record speaks for itself.

We have been trying to understand why the mayor reacted so bitterly to our endorsement of his opponent. We didn't call him any names. And we spelled his name right. He didn't spell our name right and "stupid" was one of the more complimentary words he chose Saturday.

While we assuredly did voice a preference, and well before the voting day, our recommendations of Mr. Schuler included praise for much of what Mr. Partney has helped accomplish during the past eight years.

We were disappointed that he injected church-related lodge loyalties into the campaign, forcing a reception for Mr. Schuler to be canceled. But we included his explanation in the headline in the first paragraph, and frequently and extensively throughout the article that he objects to. The mayor's side took up 16 inches of the 22-inch article.

And only several inches away on the same front page Thursday was a 100% pro-Partney, anti-Schuler statement submitted by the mayor.

The mayor obviously resents anyone commenting on his health, and we would not have done so unless we considered it to be pertinent to tomorrow's election. The late Adlai Stevenson, we recall vividly, saw fit to review President Eisenhower's health over nationwide television in the 1956 campaign, and there are many other precedents.

Mr. Partney caustically calls those who mention his stroke "Doctor," implying that they are laymen falsely claiming to be medical authorities.

Our comment Thursday was based on the mayor's own statement, published March 1 under the heading, "Health Factors Are Outlined by Mayor Partney." It was published promptly and prominently exactly as he presented it.

If we have any misgivings about the campaign coverage, it is that we were trying so hard to be fair to the mayor that we let him go much too far in picturing the election battle as a dramatic confrontation between his "good guys" and what he said was a deplorable bunch of "bad guys" on the other side. A partisanism-vs.-politics image is what he consistently sought to convey. If it ever was that way, that clear-cut, it isn't this spring.

Mayor Partney is a politician himself, whether he realizes it or not, and he has acquired some mighty strange bedfellows, to use the old cliché.

Alderman Walter Nonn has been practicing power politics for several decades, boasting often about how many votes he can "deliver" for whatever side of an issue a financial backer chooses.

It is this same ward boss, Walter Nonn, who Saturday appealed for Partney votes as a way of fighting "machine politics." And he said it with a straight face.

Partney advocates have used a number of old-style machine tactics, including visits to housing project tenants afraid of official disapproval, late-in-the-campaign stops at dwellings with conditions bordering on city ordinance violations; and wide-ranging patronage promises.

In the Partney machine, near the gear shift is Guy Lahr Jr., a well-traveled writer and strategist who has taken a variety of election stands over the years. In the back seat is David Partney, always ready to spread the strategists' latest innuendo or vilification.

And reaching for the steering wheel is Dick Allen, a former Granite City Democratic chairman and longtime committeeman. Until Governor Walker intervened and halted the activity Thursday, Allen had been offering state patronage in trying to pressure local Democratic committeemen into supporting Partney.

There are many fine people, of course, who are going to vote for one candidate and many equally fine who will support the other candidate; this is what democracy is all about. Whoever receives majority support will deserve to win, if there is a sufficient turnout and if the issues are adequately understood.

We said Thursday we believe Paul Schuler can best lead Granite City as mayor in 1973-77.

We favor Mr. Schuler even more strongly today after a weekend that showed the shallowness of some of the campaign activity, and the callous attitude of some of those who have become involved in trying to patch together enough backing to capture a third term for the mayor.

Expect Large Vote Turnout Here Tuesday

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A heavy vote is expected in tomorrow's Granite City municipal election and in competition for town offices in Granite City, Nameoki and Chouteau Townships.

Polling places in all four townships of the Quad-City area and in the Venice Park District will be open at 6 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

Results of the Granite City voting will be reported by election clerks to the office of City Clerk Robert Stevens, while results of the township balloting will be reported to the town clerks of the respective townships.

Spirited campaigns have been waged in Granite City and all of the townships except Venice Township, where a ticket of candidates for eight offices is unopposed.

Many of the candidates on the Venice Township ticket are incumbents.

The battle between incumbent Granite City Mayor Donald Partney and Sixth Ward Alderman Paul Schuler for the mayor's office has highlighted the campaign in recent weeks, although heated contests also have been waged for Aldermanic posts in Wards Two, Four, Six and Seven.

There is no opposition for aldermanic posts in Ward One, Three and Five.

While the name of Richard M. Patton is on the ballot in the Third Ward, he has withdrawn from the race because he has moved to Belleville. Write-in opposition to incumbent Roy Poulos has been started by Marshall Brooks.

Stevens, as a candidate for re-election as city clerk, and Paul Rutledge, city treasurer, are unopposed in the Granite City balloting.

Opposition between incumbent Township Supervisor Nelson Hagmann and Ralph Astorian for the office of supervisor also is expected to help bring out a heavy vote tomorrow.

Von Dee Cruse, now serving as Granite City Township assessor, by appointment, has opposed in his bid for election to that office. He is a former assessor, Granite City Township will elect only a supervisor and an assessor.

Granite City is expected to pile up the heaviest vote, since

Flood Concern In Island Area

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

The flood situation today on Chouteau Island remained critical as the Mississippi River continued to rise and erosion continued to weaken the overstrained levees.

Areas east of the Chain of Rocks Canal, including the Quad-Cities, are not in jeopardy, as the levees there would hold a flood of more than 12 feet above the anticipated river crest.

Boats in the canal are being instructed to slow down to reduce erosion from the wash, but Howard Keeney, lockmaster at the Chain of Rocks Locks, reported today that "the levees here are in fine shape and we anticipate no problems."

Volunteers from throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area began sandbagging operations on the island—as well as many Missouri locations—last week and an appeal for more workers was issued Thursday. Besides heightening the levees with sandbags in low areas, the volunteers assisted Granite City Army Depot personnel Friday and during the weekend in reinforcing weak areas in the levees where water was seeping through the dirt, threatening to shift and break sections of the levees.

Workers had been hopeful of a crest in the river Saturday at just over 37 feet, but rain all weekend upstream extended the date for the crest to this Friday and the estimate was raised to 40 feet.

Several Chouteau Island residents have indicated they plan to evacuate their homes today.

Others were forced to evacuate earlier when the Mississippi River topped a small private levee at the

Help Fight Against Birth Defects; Join Quad-City Walkathon Sunday

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

"There's still time to lend a foot to aid the March of Dimes and help fight birth defects," Harry Cook, Granite City coordinator for the March of Dimes Walkathon, set for 1 p.m. Sunday, said today.

Mrs. Julie Volaski of Madison and Milton Morris of Venice, coordinators of the Quad-Cities Walkathon, echoed Cook's statement, reminding all local residents that registration for Sunday's walk from the Wilson Park rink in Granite City through Madison and Venice and return is open to anyone wishing to help raise money for the March of Dimes.

Individuals and groups interested in joining the walkathon are invited to contact any of the coordinators for information, sponsor sheets or literature.

Cook, who is faculty advisor to the Student Council at Granite City High School, explained that those participating in the project will receive a "sponsor sheet" and secure as many pledges from friends, neighbors and local business people as possible who agree to pay a specific amount per mile for the number of miles covered by the "walker."

Pledges can vary 10 cents to $500 per mile, Cook said, and the number of sponsors for each individual also at varying amounts is not restricted.

"A single walker may have six sponsors, all agreeing to contribute a different amount per mile achieved by the participant," Cook said.

If the walker covers the entire 10-mile distance, the sponsor multiplies his pledge by 10. Should only five miles be covered, the multiplier is five, and so on.

"After the walkathon is over, the participant's card is validated and presented to his sponsors who, in turn, donate the amount agreed upon to a special March of Dimes collection point established at the American National Bank, the coordinators said.

So far, those agreeing to take part in the walkathon include members of the Granite City Society for Crippled Children, the Shriners Oriental Band, Amvets Post 51, Sacred Heart Altar Society, Granite City Steel Co., St. Elizabeth Hospital, plus many individuals.

Cook noted that in Illinois alone during 1972, the March of Dimes has contributed over $287,000 to research and related programs dealing with the causes, prevention and effective treatment of birth defects.

The Madison County March of Dimes Chapter last year invested more than $7,000 in public and professional health education programs and over $10,000 in community services and patient services.

Medical research grants totaling $124,000 were given in 1972 in Illinois, and the program provides annual support to birth defects centers at Children's Hospital and Cardinal Glennon Hospital.

Walkathon funds contribute greatly to the success of these programs, Cook noted.

Local merchants are offering prizes to participants who have the most pledges per mile, those having the greatest number of sponsors and to walkers crossing the finish line first, the coordinator said.

The project leaders offered several tips to those intending to take part in the walkathon. Look up and make sure your threads match the weather. Rain or shine the March of Dimes Walkathon will go on as scheduled—so dress for it. Remember though, after the first few miles walking is a warm business, so don't overdress.

Carry identification with you at all times.

On the day of the walk, register at the starting point and bring all your walk materials, including the kit, sponsor sheet and other March of Dimes literature.

Do walk on the sidewalks and do not cut across private property.

March of Dimes officials, easily identifiable, will be along the walk route to assist participants.

Walkers must have their cards stamped at each checkpoint as proof to their sponsor that the number of miles has been achieved.

When you feel you have had it... quit... and be proud you stayed with it as long as you.

Immediately following the walk, participants are urged to begin collections from sponsors as soon as possible.

Donations may be sealed in an envelope and placed in the night depository box at American National Bank at Fehling and Nameoki roads.

The mayors of the three communities are expected to be on hand to bid the walkers "bon voyage," together with other community leaders, Cook said.

Scott, Hartigan to Push for U. S. Approval of New Airport in Illinois

In a bipartisan effort to locate a new regional St. Louis airport in Illinois, Attorney General William J. Scott and Lieutenant Governor Neil F. Hartigan will go to Washington next week to seek a favorable decision from the federal government.

Scott, a Republican, and Democrat Hartigan already have made presentations to federal officials and have conferred together extensively on the airport matter.

On Wednesday, April 11, Scott and Hartigan will jointly host a working lunch with the full Illinois congressional delegation at the Rayburn building on Capitol Hill.

Illinois Senators Charles Percy and Adlai Stevenson and both the Republicans and Democratic members of the U. S. House of Representatives have been invited to participate in the noon working session.

Additionally, Hartigan and Scott plan to meet with White House and other federal officials to state the Illinois case for the airport.

The two top Illinois officials say they will go to Washington with a persuasive position.

Favoring the Illinois site — the Columbia-Waterloo area across the Mississippi River from downtown St. Louis — a government Environment Impact Study rates the proposed Illinois location as the only acceptable site of all the tracts considered for the airport.

Studies further underscore the fact that in terms of relocating residents affected by airport construction, the Illinois site will affect fewer residents than any other tract offered for the air facility, they noted.

In early March, a Federal Aviation Administration staff report disclosed that the proposed Illinois location for the airport was "acceptable" for the site.

The same report indicated that a plan to expand St. Louis's existing Lambert Field was not a desirable solution to the metropolitan area's air-growth needs.

While the report was described as a background paper and not an official recommendation, the FAA, its findings stirred fresh optimism for locating the airport facility in Illinois.

Scott and Hartigan will tell the Illinois Congressional delegation at the workshop session that locating the airport opposite St. Louis on the Illinois side of the river is the single greatest factor possible for the economic development of Downstate Illinois in general, East St. Louis in particular, and the metropolitan St. Louis region overall.

Should no airport be constructed, the entire area would lose a major economic opportunity, the two Illinois officials contend.

Schuler Printing Label Local; None On Partney's Data

An attack by Mayor Partney on printing work done for Mayor Candidate Paul Schuler inaccurately alleged that the work had been carried out in Missouri rather than Illinois.

The mayor called attention Saturday to a label which included the words, "Allied Printing Trades Council, St. Louis, Union Label." What he apparently overlooked was the union chapter number, which Schuler backers said is assigned to a printing firm on State Street in Granite City. The number, 131, was visible.

All of the Illinois and Missouri chapters in this bi-state region, including the Press-Record's No. 108 in Granite City, utilize the same Allied symbol (visible in the dateline near the top of the front page).

Three different circulars distributed by the Partney group during the weekend showed no union label of any kind. Some of the content of the Partney hand bills drew criticism from a number of people as inappropriate.

It was ascertained that at least one of the young people making the distribution was placing the handbills in mailboxes, a violation of postal laws.

Boycott Would Add to Meat Shortage and Cost--State

Don't kick the farmer in the face by destroying his incentive to increase his cattle production so that the supply of meat can match the demand," Robert J. "Bud" Williams, director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture, said Friday in reacting to the current meat price controversy.

Williams said blaming higher meat prices on the farmer would be "grabbing the wrong bull by the tail."

He urged, "During the President's meat price ceiling, let's begin to understand each other's problems."

Williams said he understands concern shown by housewives which is a burden for everyone who has suggested meat rationing, price freezes and other solutions.

"First, let's solve the global protein problem and the transportation crisis to make it possible to increase our beef herds. While doing this, let's restructure our budgets for meat so we have for every other item affected by the rising cost-of-living," he said.

"The problem is a matter of unfortunate circumstances which are a burden for every consumer, no matter if he or she is a livestock producer, processor, retailer or housewife."

Williams warned that he feels that if drastic measures such as meat rationing or price freezes become a reality, the livestock producer's incentive to produce enough red meat to match the ever-increasing demand will be crushed and will have the effect, in the long run, of driving prices even higher.

He said meat prices consumers are paying today date back 19 months when the cattle were being raised and nurtured for marketing.

"One aspect of the problem," he noted, "is that we are involved in a worldwide protein shortage, and have been for a number of years, which is being compounded by a growing transportation crisis."

"The crisis, for which Gov. Dan Walker and I have called a 15-state conference in Chicago in April, means that with a present shortage of railcars in the Midwest, soybeans and other feed grains cannot reach the marketplace from the farmer's field."

"The shortage, then, only increases the shortage of protein feed needed to raise cattle over a two-year period so that they can be properly fattened to provide high quality meat at the market. Raising of beef cattle or other livestock for red meat consumption does not take place overnight."

"With a shortage of feed, the livestock producer raises less cattle and the price of meat rises."

"The current railcar shortage also means that grain produced in the fields of Illinois and other Midwestern states cannot be supplied to the extent needed for expansion of cattle herds."

"Thus, we have a shortage of cattle."

In restating the department's concern and understanding for consumers protesting the meat price situation, Williams said, "Kicking one sector of society in the face, or reaching for radical solutions to the problem, will not solve anything over a significant period of time."

"It may bring prices down for a few weeks or months but its effect on the producer will only serve to convince him that it will not be profitable to continue to raise that product."

Williams emphasized that, once this happens, consumers will be faced with eating imported meats, which will probably increase prices due to a larger demand, and aggravate the nation's balance of trade.

Mrs. Walker's Secretary In Job of Wide Activity

By JOAN MURARO
Copy News Service

Springfield — There's something to be said for not knowing what to expect when you take a new job; nothing surprises you.

Mrs. Gerri McDermand had been secretary to the presidents of two Springfield insurance firms before she became social secretary to Mrs. Roberta Walker, wife of Illinois Gov. Dan Walker, but she'd had no grounding in the intricacies of the social secretary's world.

Though her scope of activity is wide—she answers correspondence, travels with Mrs. Walker, sets appointments—so far nothing has been really unexpected, she says.

Because she spends as much time as possible with her children who are still at the family home in Deerfield, Mrs. Walker has not been too active in political circles so far, and Mrs. McDermand has only taken two trips with the state's first lady, but she's satisfied she's going to love it.

Herself the mother of three sons, aged 11, 15 and 18, she finds her own home life so far hasn't interfered with her new professional life. "Boys, even at 11, don't really want their mothers doing everything for them, so they manage quite well when I'm not around," she said.

Mrs. McDermand's husband is a home builder and real estate dealer who also operates a kitchen furnishing business and a woodworking operation. Not actively politically-oriented, he's taken his wife's new job in stride though he was "surprised" when she got it.

Mrs. McDermand didn't expect to end up with her own office in the governor's mansion, answering the mail for the governor's wife, when she went for an interview several months ago.

She had come under consideration for a secretary to one of the governor's aides, and had been accepted for that post, when she was notified she would also be given the choice of working with Mrs. Walker instead.

Most people, she finds write to Mrs. Walker inquiring about having the governor's wife make a personal appearance somewhere—a tour of a nursing home, a mother-daughter banquet—that sort of thing.

There have been some mail on controversial subjects seeking Mrs. Walker's intervention in political matters, such as some scattered letters from anti-abortion forces asking Mrs. Walker as well as the governor's wife, to take some position or action. There haven't been many of these, Mrs. McDermand notes.

A trim, tidy, blonde with blue-gray eyes, Mrs. McDermand looks nowhere near old enough to have a 18-year-old son. She apparently shuns publicity and the limelight as much as Mrs. Walker, though she notes that her employer probably will become more active once the problems of getting her family established have been handled.

director of the Nameoki District bands, also leads the combined band. Bourland's district includes Frohardt, Niedringhaus, Nameoki, Mitchell, Johnson, Maryville and Parkview schools and Schoene directs the program at all of the other schools.

Presently, Mrs. Walker is chiefly concerned with acclimating her 18-year-old daughter Margaret and 10-year-old son (called Will by the women in the family, Billy by the men) to the fact they are the daughter and son of the governor.

The course, Geography 450, was organized by undergraduate earth sciences students, Earth Sciences instructor Ronald E. Yarbrough will teach the course.

The students will depart June 10 by chartered bus for Kentucky, Tennessee and North and South Carolina. Eight quarters of credit will be offered for successful completion of the course.

Course work will actually begin during the spring quarter, with extensive readings in the cultural and physical geography of the region. After the trip, students will submit research papers.

Minimum enrollment in the course is 20 persons, and the maximum is 24. Consent of the instructor is required. The course will cost $220, including tuition and fees, transportation and room and board. A deposit of $50 is required by April 15.

Yarbrough said the purpose of the course is to offer students an opportunity to study another geographical area intensively.

Specialized Services Building Considered

Appointment of a publicity committee to work with the building committee in developing plans for construction of a building was made during the regular monthly meeting of the Specialized Services Advisory Council at the Hungarian Hall last week.

The building committee will meet April 11 at 7 p.m. in the Hungarian Hall to consider further building plans.

The council also re-elected Daryl Few as president, Hilda Few as secretary and Betty Schwallier as treasurer. Reports on telephone and personal visit surveys which have been conducted separately from a mail survey, were given by Mrs. Gen Helrich. She said the survey disclosed 125 handicapped persons that would attend a new workshop when it is built.

Tom Moehn and Loraine Hamm, directors, gave a report on the budget. Mrs. Gene Tondre and Mrs. Schwallier were appointed as chairmen of special activities and Mrs. Hamm and Jerry Gorline were appointed to set up workshop projects.

Plans also were discussed for a bake sale at Schermer's Market, Madison, to raise funds for the workshop building.

July 19, 1971, in Venice, and separated Jan. 21, 1972. Desertion was charged. Her maiden name of Donna Marie Kalgereu was restored.

Braves Clip Cahokia 3-1

The Coolidge Junior High School baseball squad downed Cahokia Friday afternoon.

Cahokia took the early lead with one run in the third inning and Coolidge tied the score in the fifth. At the end of the regulation seven innings, the scoring deadlock remained and extra innings were undertaken.

In the ninth inning a single by Brave Bob Daugherty drove Charles Rush and Nick Dochow across the plate for the victory.

Coolidge's Rick Fancher was the winning pitcher. He hurled eight innings and was relieved in the final inning by Randy Lyster.

Warriors Take Baseball Opener

John Stanton pitched a three-hitter as Granite City High School's baseball team won its first game of the season, a 4-0 shutout over Roxana Friday at Wilson Park.

He struck out 11 batters and walked three while the GCHS Warriors collected five hits, including a double by Stanton. Both teams played errorless ball.

The Warriors scored all of their runs in the second inning. Tom Vrenick led off with a single, Mike Stanton singled and Greg Linhart walked to load the bases. Larry Petri drew a walk to force in a run.

Steve Ashby singled and the last runner crossed the plate when Mike Martinez was safe on a fielder's choice.

Warrior Coach Gale Garbe commented, "Our base running was not good, and we'll have to work on it. But our pitching was strong for the first game."

A doubleheader which had been scheduled for Saturday at Quincy was rained out and was rescheduled for next Saturday at Quincy.

The Warriors are scheduled to play today at Alton, tomorrow at Wood River and Wednesday with Triad at Wilson Park, all starting at 4 p.m.

Arrigo Wins Second Funny Car Title Here

Joe Arrigo of Chicago drove his nitro-fuel injected 1973 Camaro funny car to its second consecutive championship yesterday at St. Louis International Raceway south of Madison.

Arrigo topped a field of eight cars here March 11, the last time the funny cars appeared, and yesterday defeated a field of 12 funny cars which completed qualifications.

Arrigo's 490-cubic-inch Chevrolet engine developed its full 900 horsepower to power the small dragster the length of the quarter-mile track in 8.51 seconds during qualifications to give him the number one spot for eliminations.

In the semi-final round, Arrigo lowered his time to 8.44 seconds, finishing at 174.9 miles per hour to put the popular St. Louis based Guthrie & Burton car out of the competition. The Guthrie & Burton Mach I Mustang developed engine trouble at the starting line and had a slow run of 12.95 seconds.

In the other semi-final round bracket, the Gaglione & Emerson 1973 Dodge Charger funny car turned on a 8.58 second quarter-mile to defeat the DeCausemaker & Tiffin Mach I.

Arrigo handily won the championship with an 8.31 second run, finishing at 174.4 m.p.h., while Vic Gaglione's car developed mechanical difficulties and required 11.57 seconds to complete the run.

A wheel-standing event which was canceled by rain March 25 is scheduled for next Sunday. Featured will be side-by-side wheel standing competition between the plastic bodied M40 tank replica of Bob Perry and the "Little Red Wagon" of Bill "Maverick" Golden, both reaching speeds approaching 140 m.p.h.

Gates will open at 9 a.m. Sunday and qualifications for all classes will begin at 10 a.m. The first-round wheel standing competition and eliminations in all classes will begin at 2 p.m.

GC Trackmen Place at Meet

The Granite City High School trackmen made their best showing of recent years in the annual Joseph Cogdell Invitational meet at Normal Saturday. No team scores were kept but the Warriors earned one first place, two seconds and three thirds, more places than had been recorded recently.

Bob Kratz topped the fielding the pole vault, clearing 13 feet, 6 inches. Second place honors were won by Howard Bryant in the mile in 4:32.5 and by Brad Hiles in the shot put with 53 feet, 10 inches.

Rich Patterson was third in the high jump and the 880 and mile relay teams of Rich and Tom Schooley, Greg Becker and Dave Ruebhausen earned third in both running events.

ST. MARK'S CAGERS, champions of the Church League, Red Division, with an 11-1 season record in the Granite City Park District basketball program. They are, left to right, front row, Ray Jones Jr. and Glen Sprankle Jr.; second row, Ray Jones, Steve Saitch, Glen Sprankle and Mike Modrusich; and third row, Paul Mosby, Mike Rousseau, Mike Schuler, Jerry Nelson and Rich Sharf.

BARRELLING WAY into second base in an attempt to break up a double play is SUIE's Tom Twellman in Friday's game with Winona State. Twellman hurt his left knee on the play and may be out of the Cougar lineup for a week or more.

SUIE Takes Twin Bill From Winona State U.

Coach Roy E. Lee of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball team has his Cougar baseballers off to their best season since the sport was inaugurated at SUIE seven years ago.

Now 3-0 after impressively sweeping a weekend double-header from a very strong Winona State of Minnesota team, 4-2 and 4-0, Lee's charges face five games this weekend opening at 3 p.m. Friday with a single game with the Washington University Bears and a pair of twinbills Saturday and Sunday with Illinois Institute of Technology.

Chicago. All five will be played at Cougar Field. One would think that Lee isn't entirely happy, but it isn't. It's the weather and the role that the elements play in college baseball. The double victory over Winona on Friday illustrates the problem. Saturday's twinbill with the Minnesota team was rained out, or rather called off because of a flooded infield. Apparently dirt placed on the base paths acted as a dip, or levee, to keep the water from draining off of the playing surface.

Stan Hawkins and Dale Wilderspin's mound jobs against Winona State Friday were brilliant ones. Hawkins, a southpaw from Behalto, was in complete control in the opening game and could well have won more easily except for two double plays and a freak triple play turned in by the Winona State defense. In the bottom half of the eighth frame, Cougar shortstop Pat Peterson of Edwardsville was safe on an infielder's error. SUIE's third baseman, Jo Jo Crenshaw was hit by a pitched ball and two were on base with no outs.

Ron Rohlfing slashed a line drive which appeared headed for the power alley between left and center when Winona's centerfielder, Jeff Youngbauer, came from nowhere to make a Terry Moore catch. And, before you could say "Uncle", Winona had its triple play: centerfielder, second to first. Catcher Roger Belshe of Granite City paced the Cougars at bat with a 3-for-4 day in the leadoff game, although Peterson, Jim Denny and Bill Campbell were credited with one RBI each.

In the second game, Wilderspin spun a shutout on three hits, but only one of them was a legitimate single. The other two were scratch infield hits after two were out in the third frame. The most impressive thing about Hawkins' and Wilderspin's hurling performances were that they allowed only one walk and that by the latter after two were out in the final inning. The Cougar bats were active and brutal in the second game: Bobby Graves, Jerry Fletcher and Jo Jo Crenshaw were all 2-for-3, while converted hurler, Mike Dickey of Flora, had a

Jones to Be Cited at Dinner

Sanford-Brown College will hold its annual basketball banquet at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday at the school.

Receiving one of 12 varsity letters will be Greg Jones of Granite City, his second. He also will receive a trophy for best field goal percentage as he led the Cougars with a 50.3 shooting percentage and averaged 16.2 points a game. He was selected to the Greater St. Louis College Conference All-Star team.

Sanford-Brown finished with a 21-4 record, its best ever, and won the conference crown and tournament championship.

Skirball or Don Gresco, all who had identical records.

Other scores were Clay Winfield 48 and Rick Bohmestiel 52.

Trojan 9 Drops 2, Plays Today

The baseball Trojans of Madison High School dropped a choice. Kevin Ditch singled, sending home Turner, and Dar-ryl Jones singled, sending Greer across the plate.

Ditch led the Trojan hitting with three-for-three and Turner tagged two-for-three.

On Friday at East St. Louis the Flyers collected five hits and made no errors and the Trojans were held to three hits and committed two errors.

Ron McLaughlin was the losing pitcher though he had 11 strike outs and walked two. The winning pitcher, Ed Simonson, fanned nine and walked one.

East St. Louis scored one run in the first, second and fifth innings.

The three Trojan hits were made by Fonville in the first inning, McLaughlin in the third and Greer in the sixth.

The Trojans are now 1-2. They are scheduled to host Highland Park Paul at 4 p.m. today and St. Louis Central at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Werner pitched a real good game after that first inning. He got nervous and they got to him but then after he had a chance to calm down a little he was really great on the mound," Davis said.

The Trojans three runs came in the top of the fifth as Werner reached second base on a sole Triad error. Carl Turner singled, sending Werner home.

Carl Fonville drew a walk but was later tagged out as Jay 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Belshe Among SUIE Athletes Named on Outstanding List

Seven Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville young men will be listed in the 1973 edition of Outstanding College Athletes of America.

Five of the athletes starred on the 1972 SUIE baseball team which finished third in the NCAA College Division national tournament held at Springfield, Ill. The athletes were: Dan Cole, St. Louis, hurler Ron Middleton, Oblong, Ill., and infielder Mike Almaraz, Edwardsville, who graduated. The two other baseball players, catcher Roger Belshe, Granite City, and second baseman Tom Twellman, St. Louis, are key members of the SUIE nine.

The two others selected are last May.

MAYOR DON PARTNEY HAS THE EXPERIENCE TO HANDLE IT!

Re-Elect DON PARTNEY FOR MAYOR

Originated and Paid for by Betty Smith

MAYOR PARTNEY'S PRESS RELEASE

MARCH 26, 1973

Mayor Partney has issued the following statement:

The Not Guilty Verdict by Judge Mosley is incredible.

Even though it is true that Judge Mosley having only been on the bench months it is hard to conceive how he could have reached a verdict other than guilty in light of the following:

1. Paul Schuler refused the opportunity to deny the charges under oath.
2. Mr. Schuler failed to keep his promise of producing the tax records that could have proved or disproved his innocence.
3. Donald Vaughn, Mr. Schuler's partner, claimed that there were records to show that the partnership was ended but he failed to bring them to the hearing.
4. No evidence was admitted that showed that they are not partners in Vaughn's Pharmacy as they have been since 1964.
5. An official of the State of Illinois Department of Registration and Education testified that Mr. Schuler did not notify them of the change of ownership until January 15, 1973.
6. William Storer, a widely respected handwriting expert, testified that Paul Schuler signed a document confirming his partnership in Vaughn's Pharmacy in August of 1971.

Judge Mosley stressed the point that a man must be proved guilty beyond any reasonable doubt; I feel that any fair minded citizen can examine the evidence, ask himself why Mr. Schuler voted to approve payments to Vaughn's Pharmacy, was Mr. Schuler afraid to take the stand, and why the records of the dissolution of the partnership were not produced. An inexperienced Judge may have been fooled by politically powerful lawyers, but I am sure the Citizens of Granite City will not be.

Further, I ask the Citizens of Granite City to examine the evidence and ask themselves if they are willing to trust the Mayor's Office to a man who seems to have no understanding of the need to be above reproach and has no hesitancy to use political office for personal gain.

Green Denies Nonn Report of 'Aid' Pressure

Allegations that Fourth Ward Alderman Claude Green used "pressure tactics" in urging a woman to remove a "Partners for Mayor" sign from her yard were made Friday by Fifth Ward Alderman Walter Nonn as a clash between the two over campaign tactics continued.

Green is a supporter of Alderman Paul Schuler, candidate for mayor, and Nonn supports the incumbent, Mayor Donald Partney.

At the Granite City Council meeting March 25, Green had charged Nonn with visiting a voter and using tactics that "left the woman considerably upset."

Nonn on Friday said that Green visited Mrs. Donald Tinsley, 2414 Missouri Ave., and asked her to remove a sign for Mayor Partney in her yard.

Nonn alleged Green promised Mrs. Tinsley he would have the family placed on "state aid" if she would remove the sign.

He said Green should not have promised state aid because he has no power over state funds.

Mrs. Tinsley's husband was reported to have been unemployed since the closing of a local plant.

Green Friday said he had spoken to Mrs. Tinsley and had asked her to remove the sign in her yard, but "I conducted myself in a mannerly way," he said.

"I do not go around in my yard or any other ward threatening people," he added.

Green said he promised Mrs. Tinsley he would help her in any way he could but she said that David Partney, a son of the mayor, had visited her two weeks earlier and had promised help.

"I asked why he had not done it in two weeks, and then asked her if she would take her sign down," Green said.

Green added he will be glad to assist Mrs. Tinsley if she calls him and requests his assistance.

Duties of Nameoki's Officials Expanded; Government Service Improvements Cited

ARRESTED IN MISHAP

A leading radiator led to the arrest of Marvin Miller, 22, of 2123a Edison Ave., in the alley behind 2125 Edison Ave., after his auto struck the auto of Earnest David, 1309 Twenty-third St., in front of his home at 3:55 a.m. Sunday.

Miller was charged with leaving the scene of an accident, driving while intoxicated and illegal transportation of liquor. Beer cans were found spilled on the floor of his car.

Nameoki Township Clerk Douglas M. Teetor said in a statement today that projected increases in the salaries of town officials are based on the fact that the duties are being substantially expanded.

Teetor related, "When the campaign manager for Governor Dan Walker was present in this area earlier this year, he made it a point to learn a little about the grassroots government in the area and stated, 'We would like to do for the State of Illinois what Nameoki Township has done for its citizens; that is, bring the government back to the people.'"

"That is exactly what the governing body of Nameoki Township has so diligently stressed. 'They have always maintained that the better the people are informed, and the more they are encouraged to participate, the more confidence the citizens will have in their public officials.'

"Even though recent changes in the Illinois statutes have transferred many of the powers from the electors to the Town Board, the Nameoki Town Board has made every attempt to keep citizen participation alive."

"At every township meeting during the past four years, after the business at hand has been conducted and prior to adjourning, the citizens in the audience are given an opportunity to express their views, register their complaints, and on occasion express a word of gratitude. This is what real township government is all about."

At the last regular township meeting, no one from the press was present, nor were any of the opposing candidates. Business was conducted as usual, and according to statutory requirements, resolutions establishing the salaries for the officers to be elected for the fiscal year.

"The auditors on the Town Board had been charged by the supervisor to evaluate the duties of the officers to be elected and determine and recommend an equitable rate for each job. It was established that requirements for the jobs and the time involved would be sharply increased."

"Revenue sharing would require separate funds to be established, separate records to be maintained, separate budgets to be completed, for each entitlement period throughout the fiscal year."

"In addition, the auditors will be required to assume the responsibilities for various committees, in order to provide a better service to the community."

"It was also established that an auditor would be allowed to miss only two meetings during the year without forfeiture of pay."

"In keeping with the practice of informing the citizens of every phase of township business, the press was informed of the salaries established; in areas where it was determined to be warranted, increases were made."

"The salaries are in line with the responsibilities for the job."

"As in the case of all jobs, the rate may not be nearly enough for the performance that one man may give, and entirely too much for the performance of another."

"It is up to the voters to fill these jobs with responsible men who are capable and willing to do the job."

"Although many important phases of business were conducted and reported, the press chose to headline salary increases in reporting the meeting."

"The press has been very fair in its reporting, but especially at this time we feel it is very important for the reader to realize the additional responsibilities that warranted the increases."

"Nameoki Township has made great strides the past four years. The financial status of the township has changed from a position of just surviving to being in a position to further expand services."

"We have gone from in the red four years ago to approximately $107,000 balance at the end of this fiscal year, not including revenue sharing."

"The Long Lake Fire District was expanded to cover areas without fire protection."

"Areas in the township having difficulty obtaining fire insurance were designated under the Fair Plan protection."

"School crossing lights were installed in two critical areas and paid for. A four-township sewer program was initiated in Nameoki Township and, hopefully, federal funding will soon be forthcoming."

"An emergency program to drain Dobrey Slough has been established and the state of Illinois has agreed to fund the program."

"Petitions to separate the Madison County portion of the East Side Levee from the St. Clair County portion originated in Nameoki Township."

"Dual signatures on bank accounts were established for township funds. Investment of idle funds was established."

"The interest will more than pay the salaries of the auditors this year."

"Needed road equipment was purchased for the road department — a new backhoe-loader, trencher, chipper, ditch vacuum cleaner, salt and gravel spreader truck, oil tanker truck and street sweeper."

"A garage was built to shelter the equipment. An improved General Assistance Program was implemented."

"A work program for those receiving general assistance was established, allowing a person a dignified way to obtain help and giving the taxpayer a return service for his tax dollar."

"Street sweeping was started in subdivisions last year. Plans were made for trash collection service with revenue sharing funds."

"Citizens have been represented at hearings; numerous letters have been written to state and federal officials in behalf of citizens. All programs have been established and initiated with the help of the citizens."

"A salesman for one of the local companies, who has occasion to travel around the state of Illinois and other states which have the township form of government, recently stated that Nameoki Township has a more active Town Board than any other he has contacted."

"As long as we can continue to merit your confidence, it is our desire to serve you to the best of our abilities, Teetor concluded."

Says Nonn Visit For Vote Led to Removal Notice

Allegations that Fifth Ward Alderman Walter Nonn used his political power against a woman who opposed his viewpoint in the city mayor's race were made Saturday by Mrs. Clara Cook, 708 Twenty-eighth place.

Mrs. Cook, who had a sign in her yard urging the election of Alderman Paul Schuler over incumbent Mayor Donald Partney, said Nonn and an unidentified man came to her home last week.

Nonn introduced himself and asked for her vote for Mayor Partney, she related.

She said she refused and, as Nonn left her home, he gestured at items in her front yard and said, "This junk's going to be cleared away real soon, now," she alleged.

Nonn also talked to a neighbor and pointed across the street at a bus, car and freezer in her yard, she said.

Mrs. Cook said all of the items in the yard are being repaired by her husband.

Later in the week, she received a notice from the city inspection department notifying her that she has 10 days to remove the bus and car from her yard, Mrs. Cook said.

She charged that the inspector who signed the form is a relative of Mayor Partney.

WHY IS THIS MAN SMILING?

Is it because he's fooled the voters of the 6th Ward by not getting any new drainage, sidewalks and street improvements in 4 years as their representative?

Is it because he's a Do-Nothing Alderman?

Is it because he didn't testify in his own behalf?

Is it because he collected approximately $730.00 of taxpayers' money while playing softball?

Is it because in 1971-72 Sheriff Maeras gave Midtown Pharmacy $5,943.32 of the drug sales of the County Jail drug business?

BELONGINGS RUINED by high water on Chouteau Island include a pickup truck and a car in front of the truck. Flooding caused thousands of HOMES STILL OCCUPIED despite water topping the front doors, families in two of these homes continued to reside there this weekend as a precaution against possible looting. The high water topped a private farmer's levee at the northern tip of Chouteau Island and this weekend threatened to top a main levee defending the island. There is no threat to the local mainland.

INUNDATED BY RIVER, several homes at the northern edge of Chouteau Island had to be evacuated by their tenants, who were renting the homes.

Pontoon Beach & Stallings May Have Public Vote On Amendatory Vetoes

Copley News Service

Springfield — Gov. Dan Walker, who has been rebuffed already in the 78th General Assembly, probably will have to face a constitutional amendment dealing with some of the governor's power.

His problems with the Assembly started when he used his amendatory veto power to change the wording and amounts of state funds to be given to the Chicago Transit Authority (CTA). Walker wanted to reduce the amount going to the CTA from what the legislature had set.

This did not go over well with legislators. Some were still smarting by changes made under Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie who used the amendatory veto power granted under the 1970 constitution several times.

In fact, Ogilvie used it once to rewrite the bill to grant aid to private and parochial schools. The bill went to the Illinois Supreme Court to test its constitutionality. The high court ruled that Ogilvie had overstepped his bounds on the use of the amendatory veto.

When Ogilvie used the amendatory veto for the first time, members of the General Assembly had indicated an all-out drive would be made to change that portion of the state's charter.

So Rep. Charles Fleck, R-Chicago, along with a most of House members crossing both party lines, introduced a resolution in the House calling for a constitutional amendment to drop the amendatory veto power of the governor.

This was done long before the legislature voted to over-ride Walker's amendatory veto of the CTA legislation, but the bill is still "alive."

The proposed Fleck amendment (HJR-CA 7) has cleared the House. It is now in the Senate executive committee and will probably be passed there and sent to the Senate floor.

If the current mood prevails, the chances of the amendment in the Senate appear good.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Re: Donald Partney

The above patient was referred to me for evaluation of a mild stroke-like condition in June of 1972. The patient's response to treatment has been satisfactory and the patient is now considered to have recovered. Subsequently the patient was found to have developed a growth in the left lung. Surgical treatment by Dr. Thomas Burford is considered to have been completely successful.

Later, the patient was found to have developed a very mild diabetes mellitus, a condition which he shares with millions of other working Americans. The condition has been completely controlled with medication.

The patient's intellectual function as characterized by his memory, judgment, and insight remains intact. Health considerations should not significantly affect the patient's performance in his chosen employment.

Sincerely yours,

David M. Reisler, M.D.

Denies Dropping Player; Says 7th Ward Is Crucial

The accusation of a boy being released from my baseball team because of a political difference between his mother and me may be clarified at the Park office," Seventh Ward Alderman Thomas Boker said Friday.

"I have not released a ball player for the last three years. The boy being discussed did not play last year, as he spent the summer with his father in Texas. I might add that I kept him on the roster even though he was not here."

"It is true that Mrs. Harris and I had discussed the many official candidates during this campaign. However, it is Mrs. Harris that is removing her son from the team, and not me."

"It is common knowledge that the Seventh Ward is a critical ward in this campaign and some people are grasping at anything possible to discredit some candidates."

"I am running for re-election based on my performance as a representative of the people of the Seventh Ward."

"I believe that the people of the Seventh Ward and the City of Granite City will separate the political rhetoric from the issues of this campaign when they go to the polls tomorrow," Boker concluded.

Rendleman Cites Need to Reverse Metropolitan Area's Job Losses

John S. Rendleman, president of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and president of the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corporation, speaking at the seventh annual RIDC meeting Thursday in St. Louis, called for united efforts to reverse this metropolitan region's employment downturn.

"I have been concerned for some time, as I am sure you have, about a lack of basic cohesiveness in the bi-state community. I have always been deeply committed to the proposition that this bi-state area should be a unified economic entity."

"For too long now, unfortunately, many of us have pulled our own separate ways... and the region's economy has suffered," Dr. Rendleman said.

"Despite herculean efforts of many, this economy still lags further behind other major metropolitan areas in total growth."

"Practically speaking, RIDC means new plants coming into the region from other parts of the country. It also fosters expansion for existing firms already thriving in the region."

"This expansion results in the creation of many more new jobs; it means more construction throughout the area; it means new homes to meet the demands stimulated by new job holders and the increased prosperity of other workers."

"In short, total regional growth reaches every level of our community."

"Yet, functioning as it has in the past without the coordinated and cooperative efforts of everyone within the region, any success we have achieved has not fully measured up to the full magnitude of our problem."

"Had this region kept pace with the growth in the national economy over the past three years, we would have 102,000 more people gainfully employed in our region than are currently working."

"Now, that's a work force that could support the entire population of Madison and St. Clair Counties, for example, or nearly half the entire City of St. Louis."

"To me, that is a staggering statistic," Dr. Rendleman remarked.

"So, let's speculate for a moment on what these national and local economic growth trends, if continued, may mean to us in the future."

"Economic activity tends to concentrate in metropolitan regions such as ours. Today, as a consequence, 63% of the nation's population lives on 10% of the land surface."

"It is safe to say that an even higher percentage of total economic activity occurs on that same 10% of the land."

"Additionally, metropolitan regions such as ours are in competition with one another as locations for those firms that require the quantity and quality of labor, raw materials, capital and services that can be found only in such areas, with their proximity to large market territories."

"Generally, growth begets more growth. Because of this, a process evolves whereby declining metropolitan regions fall further and further behind in their ability to attract new industry and to develop more jobs."

"When this happens, people begin to leave the lagging regions in search of greener pastures elsewhere."

"The area then begins to lose its most essential asset — the work force. So the gap widens further and faster."

"We may well be at a kind of 'tipping point' in our economic history. We may soon be going downhill too fast to turn around."

"To right ourselves, we must unite our efforts and unite them now, in a concentrated, collective and organized effort to breathe fresh economic life into our region."

"All available resources must be mobilized in this effort, Illinois efforts joining in with Missouri efforts, St. Louis with St. Louis County."

"Secondly, we must unite behind a set of regional economic goals that are being formulated now so we can both set our sights and measure our results. RIDC has initiated the efforts to formulate these goals."

"Thirdly, we must develop new leadership that can truly gain regional support for regional activity. The Regional Commerce and Growth Association, with RIDC's support and cooperation, is doing just that."

"This leadership must reflect a recognition that all sectors and geographic segments of the region are to be included in shaping and executing our goals."

"Next, we must understand that the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council needs the help and the support of the business and labor community in resolving its problems."

"If these problems aren't resolved, over four billion dollars in federally-funded public improvement projects affecting all parts of the region may be deferred, if not eliminated."

"Four billion dollars in construction activity alone would be a truly enormous stimulant to our economy in its present state of stagnation."

"Finally, we must realize that our economic problems are not at least a half century in the making and will not by any stretch of the imagination be resolved overnight."

"We have at least a decade of hard work ahead of us."

BACKS INTO AUTO
An auto driven by H. Ann Burnett, 3901 Gaslight Walk, backing from a parking space, struck the rear of an auto driven by Wanda L. Hirle, 2721 Ralph St., at 5:40 p.m. Thursday at the Kentucky Fried Chicken parking lot, 1510 Johnson Road.

Mrs. Viola Smith Dies Here at Age 86

"Selling Comfort in Madison County for 25 Years"

PLEASE READ THROUGHOUT

Dear Citizen:

You have read repeated charges by the opposition that I have done absolutely nothing for our City. I have intentionally maintained silence on this issue through confidence in the intelligence of our public to see through the smoke-screen created by the organized politicians to once again capture Granite City for their personal gain. The Madison County political machine is using Mr. Schuler as a pawn, though I'm sure he doesn't completely realize it, in the most vicious, devastating effort of their career to finally and completely gain complete control of Madison County. Granite City is definitely their prize.

We will need every citizen's vote possible to save Granite. The Madison Machine has pulled together all losing candidates of the past, into their fold to add as much venom to their drive as possible.

But, for the public to see, here is a list of my accomplishments, along with the millions of dollars of Federal aid brought to our City, and, how many street improvements were made through use of our Motor Fuel Tax.

I appeal to your intelligence and integrity, to see for yourself, and sincerely hope these accomplishments are in accord with your ideas of good management, sufficiently to warrant your continued confidence and support.

PROJECTS

1. Widened Nameoki Road from 162 to Madison Avenue (1966) at a cost of $249,000.00, State aid $19,337.91.
2. Widened and paved Maryville Road within City from Pontoon Road North to 203.
3. When the old Post Office downtown was removed, I encouraged the development of a Civic park which was done at no cost to the City taxpayers for the land or removal of the old Post Office building. One private citizen donated $30,000 to the City for this project and the money was turned over to the Park District by me for the development.
4. Sanitary sewer system extension throughout North Granite, West Granite, Mercer Drive and other sections of that area.
5. Storm sewers installed in a large area of Granite (which would have been extended, but the extension was voted down by the citizens.) The storm sewer project was made possible through a personal trip to HUD in Chicago, when I acquired the huge sum of One and One-Half Million Dollars in Federal funds. I will be most happy to reactivate this program, subject to the wishes of our public.
6. Constructed 100 units of Anchorage Homes for senior citizens and I have applied for permission and Federal aid to build 200 more homes. Total cost $1,323,075.00, all of Federal funds.
7. Highway 203 under construction from Pontoon Road, to Highway 270 for which I have made numerous trips to Springfield to encourage and promote.
8. Widening of Maryville Road from Pontoon Road, South to 162, arranged for and agreed to by the County, at a cost to the City of $230,000.00, plus $1,500,000.00 to be spent by the County. THIS AGREEMENT HAS BEEN SIGNED by myself as Mayor with the County.
9. New shopping mall for the Downtown has passed the appraisal stage and is ready for Court. Construction should begin in 1973. It will be financed by downtown merchants at no cost to the District. I have met in nearly 100 meetings to see this become a reality.
10. Acquired the land of the old First National Bank at no cost to the City. The area is to become a small park.

11. New shopping center in Nameoki area which will house approximately 17 new businesses and 2 Cinema theatres. Construction to be $2,000,000.00.
12. After Council had agreed to acquire an additional 20 acres for a secondary sewer plant at a cost of $550.00 per month for the balance of time of Granite City, I called from the hospital and asked the Council to hold off. I then called the Corps of Engineers Real Estate Department in Omaha, Nebraska, and acquired the 20 acres at NO COST to the City.
13. Construction of Route 151 continuation through Granite City, which brought millions of dollars of construction to our area.
14. Hundreds of acres annexed to Granite City, which included the Lexington Subdivision. Mr. Schuler voted against this project because he said "this type of home was sub-standard". (This was his statement in the Chamber of Commerce debate.)
15. Actively engaged in consultation with the State Highway Department to make Niedringhaus Avenue a Federal aid route, connecting Route 151 with Routes 3, 203 and 162, which would provide an over or underpass of the railroads.
16. Had ordinance passed at the Council, which would make industrial loans for anti-pollution control tax-exempt, to encourage industry to expedite their new air pollution control system.
17. Granite City Steel currently is installing a new air pollution control system at a cost of over $4,000,000.00.
18. Initiated a City flag for Granite City. Only 12 other municipalities in the United States have a City flag. One of the flags was sent to each Viet-Nam service man upon request. This flag was designed at my request by an art student in Granite City, (for which I awarded her a bond.) The flag costs and mailings were my own personal project.
19. I am in receipt of an agreement from the State to drain Dobrey Slough at no cost to Granite City taxpayers. Agreement was received the week of March 12, 1973.
20. If industry is "walking out" of Granite City, as presented for example by the General Steel Company, which was no longer handling a feasible operation because of lack of demand for the product which it dealt in, apparently some large companies do not believe that Granite City is a dying area.—They believe money is still here to be spent, and they are spending millions of dollars here to prove they do not believe this area is dying. It took a great deal of effort on my part to prove that.

2 at YMCA to Guide New Fitness Program

Kent Dunn and Mrs. Joyce Mitchell, representing the Tri-City YMCA, have completed intensive training in the YMCA-Fitness Finders system of health and fitness at the St. Louis area YMCA. Dunn and Mrs. Mitchell will be leading Y-Fitness Finders classes in the Granite City area in the near future.

Developed through the combined resources of the YMCA and Rodale Press, Inc., Y-Fitness Finders is a community-oriented exercise program in their own neighborhoods for weekly fitness fun.

The Fitness Finders programs, some 300 of which currently are being conducted across the country, centers around a 35-minute session of continuous rhythmic exercise. This up-tempo session is comprised of a sequence of activities found by national fitness authorities to be most conducive to the improvement of circulatory strength and endurance.

Supplementing the exercises are fitness games and stunts, personal fitness tests and evaluations and brief lectures covering a wide variety of health topics. Besides learning how to eat for health and fitness, the fitness finder is shown how to use exercise to overcome chronic fatigue, to improve the functioning of his heart and lungs, and to prolong his active years. For those concerned with weight control, a specially designed calorie counter is provided in the "Y-Fitness Finders Manual" given to each participant.

Individuals who would like further information on YMCA Fitness Finders classes in their community are encouraged to contact Dunn or Mrs. Mitchell at the Tri-City YMCA.

Ethics Statements Due by April 30

All persons whose position subject them to the filing requirements of the Illinois Governmental Ethics Act must file a statement of Economic Interests on or before April 30, 1973, in the County Clerk's Office. It was announced today by Eulalia Hotz, county clerk.

The filing of a statement of economic interests must be made annually, with April 30 the deadline. All persons whose position required them to file in 1972 and are still in that position must file again prior to the April 30 deadline, she explained.

If a person has filed previously during this calendar year he has fulfilled the filing requirement for 1973 and April 30 is not applicable, she added. "Beginning April 1, 1973, I will issue a receipt for each statement filed," Miss Hotz stated. "Persons who have not yet filed their statements should do so as soon as possible."

Wilson Pool Repair Work Nears End; Opens in May

Final stages in the major repair work and alterations at Wilson Park Pool to conform to state health requirements, costing about $35,000, probably will be completed within the next two weeks, commissioners of the Granite City Park District were informed at a meeting last week.

No delay in opening the pool in late May is anticipated due to the extensive changes being made at the facility, Park Superintendent Harold Brown said.

Noting the $10,000 increase authorized in the estimated cost of constructing a new $30,000 maintenance building in Wilson Park, an architect advised the board that results of soil boring tests showed between four and five feet of fill and cinders where structural footings must be located, requiring deeper foundation pillars.

In other action, the commissioners approved a bike-riding marathon at Wilson Park for Saturday, May 19, from 9 a.m.

until 6 p.m., sponsored by the Pepsi-Cola Bottlers, who will offer prizes and trophies to participants.

Also authorized was use of Memorial Park, across from St. Elizabeth Hospital, for the annual DAV "Parade of Flags" on Memorial Day.

Permission was granted the Tri-City Sky Steelers Model Plane Club to use the Lincoln Place Community Center on a monthly basis, and use of the same facility for rehearsal sessions by the Mexican Honorary Commission in preparation of the May Fiesta.

Other items of business approved—Supt. Brown to attend an ice rink association convention at Orlando, Fla., May 22.

Begin Distribution Of City Directory

R. L. Polk & Co. of Taylor, Mich., has started delivery of a complete 1973 Tri-Cities Directory, including Granite City, Madison, Mitchell and Venice. The books are being delivered to its local subscribers. The Directory contains four major departments along with an introduction and statistical and general review of the communities.

First the classified section contains a complete list of the names and addresses of business and professional concerns arranged in alphabetical order under their appropriate classified headings.

The alphabetical section of the Directory shows the name, marital status, occupation and address of each resident of the Tri-Cities area. Husband and wife are counted as one name, and 18 is still the minimum age limit of individuals listed.

The third section is the directory of the shareholders, including a street and avenue guide. This section lists numbered streets in numerical order followed by the named streets in alphabetical order. The residents on every street are listed along with the telephone number at each address.

The numerical telephone directory is the last major section of the book. This is a list of every telephone number in order with the person or business who has the number listed alongside.

The first and last names appearing in the alphabetical section of the Directory are Junior Aaron and David Zuwall.

New Dobrey Drainage Route Is Agreed Upon

A new route for a Dobrey Slough interim drainage line was proposed Thursday afternoon by state and local officials and by residents of the slough area.

John Guillou, chief state waterway engineer, discussed right-of-way difficulties encountered in an earlier plan during a meeting in the city hall here with area residents. East Side Levee District officials, Mayor Donald Partney, Ramsey Alexander Jr. of the U. S. Corps of Engineers, Albert Bell, Nameoki Township highway commissioner; Eugene Gargac, a Nameoki auditor, and others.

After a stalemate on the right-of-way continued, Guillou proposed a new route for an interim drainage line to keep slough water from causing further damage to homes in the area.

Under the new plan outlined by Guillou, the state would dig a well at the west edge of the slough near the end of Pine Street.

The water then would be pumped through a new underground forced-fed sewer along the south side of Pine Street into the mainline for the existing sewer on Pine, just east of Maryville Road.

The water then would travel by gravity in the existing city sewers south to Woodlawn Avenue, west to Franklin Avenue, and south to the Amos Avenue sewer. The flow then would be west to the median of Wabash Avenue where a large pump station would be erected.

The pump then would pull water from the existing sewers and force it through a new line north of Amos Avenue east into the Nameoki Ditch. Water in the ditch flows south to Horseshoe Lake and through the Cahokia Canal into the Mississippi River.

The plan would require the cutting of driveways along the south side of Pine Street from the slough almost to Maryville Road and the cutting of driveways on the north side of Amos Avenue to the Nameoki Ditch. All officials and landowners at the meeting agreed that the new route would solve the impasse reached with the old routes. The state had proposed three routes previously.

Guillou said the waterway division would have to re-design plans for the interim drainage project for the new route which will take about three weeks. At the end of that period, specifications will be released for bids.

He assured residents of Sara Street and Lynch Avenue that the change in route would not mean that their areas would not be drained. He said the well will pull water from throughout the slough area and the two cubic feet per second pump will force the water out, thus lowering the water table in the area.

He assured city officials that the larger 10 cubic feet per second pump at Amos and Wabash avenues will increase the flow in the existing sewer system all the way to the slough, and that areas along the sewers being used will have better drainage than ever before.

There was a question whether the new plan would have to be presented to the Granite City Council for approval. The council previously granted the state the use of the Amos Avenue sewer for the first plan but only after several weeks of delay.

Guillou said he felt the change would necessitate only changing the exhibits in the original council agreement, and could be approved by the mayor on behalf of the council. Tomel Wilson, president of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, and Jack Scoville, a district trustee, said that the levee district has appropriated $40,000 for work in the Dobrey Slough area.

"We are willing to use these funds in any way to please these people. If the state needs our assistance, maybe we can help," Wilson told Guillou.

Mayor Candidate Schuler Pledges Vigorous New Leadership for City

"Vigorous new leadership" if he is elected mayor tomorrow was promised today by Paul Schuler.

"On March 12 of this year, Donald Partney charged me with official misconduct in office. He then tried to hide the complaint by filing it in the wrong office," Alderman Schuler said.

"I found it and demanded and was given an immediate trial. The verdict of the court was that I was innocent of any wrongdoing, but that did not satisfy the other candidate. He now has attacked the court and the judge."

"I promise to be a full-time mayor and to do everything within my power to revitalize our city. Every section of our community needs help and every section of our community must help if we are to achieve for our city the greatness that is possible."

"We have not used such tactics against his campaign manager, Richard Allen, or his paid writer from Mitchell, Guy Laehr, a grade school administrator. Mr. Laehr can be heard on radio (WGUN) referring to Schuler supporters as 'mob'."

"In the last two elections for mayor, the tactics have been to viciously attack the other candidate the night before the election, with written degrading material."

"We ask the voters to be prepared and to beware of these tactics. If this should happen in this election, ask yourself — why now?"

"But this is not surprising, as he has failed to keep any campaign promise he has made."

In a comment to voters, Schuler said, "At all times my campaign has been operated on a thoroughly clean basis. I have answered any and all questions relating to the election."

"It is regrettable that we could not debate the issues pertaining to the city so the voting public would be better informed."

"I considered these debates very important to explain such items as plant closings, the loss of 10,000 jobs, the communication gap with the City Council, etc., and specifically, the future of Granite City."

"Everyone associated or attempting to help in my behalf has been personally attacked."

"We have not used such tactics against his campaign manager, Richard Allen, or his paid writer from Mitchell, Guy Laehr, a grade school administrator. Mr. Laehr can be heard on radio (WGUN) referring to Schuler supporters as 'mob'."

"In the last two elections for mayor, the tactics have been to viciously attack the other candidate the night before the election, with written degrading material."

"We ask the voters to be prepared and to beware of these tactics. If this should happen in this election, ask yourself — why now?"

"But this is not surprising, as he has failed to keep any campaign promise he has made."

Mayor Seeking Excessive Power: His Campaign Alliances Create Concern That a Dictatorial Political Machine Is Being Formed

(Related editorial on Page One.)

Mayor Donald Partney during the weekend stopped running against Paul Schulz and started running against the Press-Record. There is no sound basis for such a switch in emphasis, because whoever sits down in the mayor's chair May 1 is not going to be us.

The chief executive in the new term will be one or the other of the two candidates.

Neither owes us anything, except their best effort while holding elective office. Nor do we owe either anything, except our best effort as citizens and journalists.

We are not important enough to deserve all of the attention so unexpectedly being accorded by the Partney camp, much of it, unfortunately, of a vicious nature.

Even before our editorial Thursday favoring Paul Schulz, there was considerable evidence that this was becoming one of the dirtiest campaigns in memory. A St. Louis newspaper has confirmed our evaluation, headlining one of its election articles, "Mud-Slinging Marks Race in Granite City."

The recklessness intensified during the weekend. Some evidently desire victory for the mayor so intensely that there is very little they would hesitate to do to achieve it including trying to damage the reputation of any and all who are visualized as obstacles in their path.

At the time the word McCarthyism was being coined to define political excesses, a kindly old defense lawyer admonished the senator, "I understand the depths to which you would sink."

If we have become more embroiled in tomorrow's election than we had anticipated, it is because we underestimated the depths to which the "poison pen" and "acid tongue" would be utilized by those disappointed that we did not endorse Mr. Partney for reelection.

We didn't have to take a clear stand at all on the two-way mayor race.

Also, we didn't have to take our stand at the time we did. If we had wanted to try to influence the voting without leaving time for people to disagree with us, we could have delayed our endorsement until today's issue.

Since we wanted to be fair, we spoke out early.

Despite the decision by Partney strategists to make us the target of excessive character attacks, we are not sorry about our timing or our decision. We can take the heat, deserved or undeserved.

But we are surprised by the depths resorted to, by the extreme rhetoric.

We have a right and a duty to reach and voice an opinion.

TRUTH PARTY HAS ABLE MEN WITH EXPERIENCE

As a taxpayer and citizen who lives and votes in Nameoki Township, I am deeply concerned about the upcoming election, and hope the registered voters in the township are also concerned.

There has been a letter circulated throughout the township, by the Honesty and Integrity Party, which I found shocking.

For example, the letter states that the gentlemen running for office under the Truth in Action Party are rubber stamps for the township Supervisor; that they are over-taxed the taxpayers in order to have a big surplus and will lower the taxes just prior to the election; that there is a conflict of interest by one of the candidates, etc.

These are purely mudslinging tactics and false statements, made by the Honesty and Integrity Party, which I find shocking.

I know the gentlemen who are now in office and know they are not rubber stamps for the supervisor or anyone else. They have demonstrated this while in public office, and I am sure the new candidates who are running with Truth in Action Party will set the same example.

The Honesty and Integrity Party has not set any goals or given any solutions on how to solve many of the problems which they claim the township now has. They say only they would do their best if elected.

I know of only one candidate who has had any experience in public office who is running with the Honesty and Integrity Party, and he is defeated in his last bid for public office.

The Honesty and Integrity Party has stated that they will be the party of the future, and they owe no one anything. Look who is backing them and who endorsed them recently in an advertisement in the local newspaper, and ask yourself if that is a true statement.

The Truth in Action Party has not used mudslinging tactics or downgraded the Honesty and Integrity candidates in any manner.

I believe if all taxpayers in the township would read the literature that has been circulated, they would see the difference between the Truth in Action Party and the Honesty and Integrity Party.

What we have sensed often before, and what we now see revealed more openly, is Mayor Partney's penchant for an "iron hand" approach in which he demands obedience and respect. His imperiousness and his quick anger undoubtedly are among the reasons why he has been looked upon with such distrust by the citizens of Granite City.

His savage fury when he does not get his way, his desire to exercise power, his willingness to have campaign aides exert heavy pressure on voters and committeemen—all of this leads us to fear the kind of machine politics that could evolve from the Honesty and Integrity alliances he has made in recent months.

We hope and urge that Granite City choose new leadership and a new direction in tomorrow's voting by electing Paul Schulz as mayor.

The climate has become so inflamed that, if Mr. Partney is the winner, the new direction will be one of effective municipal functioning—may need to reassign some of the responsibilities and revise some of the procedures followed in conducting the city government.

On Tuesday, April 3, is an important election. The present candidates of the Truth in Action Party are doing a wonderful job in Nameoki Township.

I urge all good friends to urge their friends to be sure and vote a straight ticket for "Truth in Action."

As a taxpayer, I feel the present Town Board has been a great help to my office and very helpful in providing any and all services required to do my job. This had not been so in the past.

The Honesty and Integrity Party is presently operated honestly, efficiently and capably.

It is with reluctance that I decided to retire and leave such good candidates, but 24 years is a long time.

It has been a great pleasure to have been able to serve the people of Nameoki Township. I would not have decided to retire, except that I am leaving the town to their hands.

JOSEPH J. COHAN, Assessor, Nameoki Township

DON'T LET GRANITE CITY BECOME LIKE MADISON

To the Editor: I would like to discuss my views of what I believe to be important in this mayor campaign.

Mr. Schulz was charged with the task of representing the people of Granite City. He is innocent, why didn't he take the stand and deny the charge?

Further, isn't it strange that the Honesty and Integrity Party, the firm involved were not produced? I wonder why? Where is this much smoke, is there fire?

Mayor Partney is president of Granite Sheet Metal, as the executive of the Honesty and Integrity Party, BUT Granite Sheet Metal has not done any business with the city—quite a different picture.

Mr. Schulz has said that "growth and annexation are the answers to the tax problem."

The FORUM

If anonymity is requested. Communications of less than 250 words will be given preference. All are subject to condensation and grammatical changes. Those libelous or not in good taste will be rejected or edited.

What does he plan to annex? Madison, with its businesses and industry, and problems that we in Granite City do not have with Partney?

An annexation in a 1969 issue of the Press-Record said in part, "It has ranked the dominant group of politicians that the mayor's office has eluded them."

"Granite City will have lost a great deal of its tax base to another predictable element in the network that has close ties elsewhere in the Quad-Cities and Madison County."

That statement is more true and important to Granite City taxpayers today than it was in 1969.

Mayor Partney has always fought the Madison County political machine and kept Granite City a clean town in which to raise our families.

Mr. Schulz has called Mayor Partney a part-time mayor. I guess if you miss a day from your job, or even a full day, in Mr. Schulz's terms, you automatically become a part-time employee.

Until Mayor Partney's illness, his attendance record and time spent in his office were a tribute to his devotion to the taxpayers of Granite City.

He is recovering from his illness and spending more time at his office now than any other mayor has in the history of Granite City.

Let me quote again from the Press-Record of March 1969: "We hope he (Mayor Partney) is re-elected, and believe he will be if the public becomes fully aware of what he has done and makes certain that it visits the polls."

There is a lot at stake. Vote for Mayor Partney. Keep Granite City—Granite City.

RALPH H. ELLIOTT 2112 Pontiac Road

FELT INTIMIDATED BY ALDERMAN GREEN VISIT

To the Editor: I have never written a letter to the Forum before. As far as I am concerned, most of the time in the past few weeks have really turned my stomach, because of the political garbage.

But I read the article about the last City Council meeting where Mayor Partney was regarding Green's charges that Walter Nunn threatened a voter.

I believe that the whole story of Nunn's visit was probably blown out of proportion, in the first place, as I know from my own experience of Green calling on me, asking to place a Schuler sign in my window.

When he left, after having no luck in convincing me, I told my husband jokingly we were on Green's list for this year. This was the feeling he left me with.

But I told no one else and I dropped it, because I weighed the pros and cons of being a strong Partney supporter and I was looking for this.

But looking for it or not, something Green had said did make me feel this way. Because we are all humans, things like this happen. But I sincerely hope that the next elections are not this dirty.

I will be voting for Donald Partney, mainly because I feel confident that he is the only one who has the experience to run this office.

As to the matter of his health, look to the past. Many of our great leaders were handicapped during their term of office, serving better and with more dedication than others.

I am a neighbor of Green, and I mean no harm to him personally. This is how I feel about the matter and anyone who knows me knows that I am speaking according to my convictions.

MRS. BETTY L. SMITH 2238 Illinois Ave.

CHOUTEAU ROAD, DITCH, CHOUTEAU NEEDS CITED

To the Editor: As the highway commissioner, I am urging all residents who live on Chouteau Township to vote for the annual meeting April 10 and vote for the tax money that was taken from the city and used to build the Chouteau Township.

Without this tax revenue, it is impossible to maintain the streets and roads of Chouteau Township and the condition will only get worse.

This is not additional tax but only to get back what I had to work with for years.

We in Chouteau Township also have a serious drainage problem. I would like to start putting in a ditch to help relieve all the people of Chouteau Township of our drainage problems. I feel this program could be started now, using federal revenue money.

Mr. Sparks and the present Town Board are not interested in using federal money to build a storage shed for equipment, and not a complete building for offices and storage.

I have been talking for six years for a township building to duced the crime rate, attracted new businesses and industry, and improved streets, alleys and drainage facilities in his city.

If this is what "Madisonizing Granite City" implies, then I am for it.

THE BARRY K. FREEDMAN 2543 Cleveland Blvd.

RE-LEAVE PARTNEY TO RESTRAIN COUNCIL POWER

To the Editor: In the last several weeks, much has been said about the difference of opinion between the mayor and the City Council.

It is true; some do exist. I believe this is a healthy condition and does not stop progress in the city.

As it is now, the mayor checks the council, the council checks the mayor and everything balances out.

There are no secret meetings and everything is brought out in the open. I hope we never reach the point where secret meetings and you scratch my back and I will scratch your back.

At the present time, the mayor and the council have the right of independent action and freedom of speech. This is as it should be.

As you probably have guessed, I am supporting the re-election of Mayor Don Partney. For eight years, he has worked hard for our mayor, and on his record deserves another term.

Since the election campaign started, I have read a number of articles about Mayor Partney, some pro and some con.

There is one fact that has been overlooked—the honesty of the man. No one, and I mean no one, can question this quality.

This in itself is a plus for reelection. I believe honesty is a quality that is needed for anyone in public office.

SAM WHITMER Alderman, Second Ward

CITY AT A STANDSTILL, NEEDS-ENERGETIC LEADER

To the Editor: Mayor Partney has wasted a lot of money on those charges against Paul Schulz. I hope this was not taxpayers' money.

He did elect to bring this to a head just prior to the election, instead of when it first came to his knowledge? This is just another part of his smear campaign, as in past elections.

Why has he never revealed his feelings from the "million dollar" union shop business that his workers keep referring to?

Also, how much was this sheet metal business worth eight years ago?

Think the Mayor Partney keep avoiding debate with Mr. Schulz in front of a live audience of people where the questions put to him can be sorted out as they can on a broadcast by telephone calls to a radio station?

I think the taxpayers and all voters of this city can see that we need an aggressive leader to work with Mayor Partney keep avoiding debate with Mr. Schulz in front of a live audience of people where the questions put to him can be sorted out as they can on a broadcast by telephone calls to a radio station?

SECRETARY GRADIE O. WHITE Member of United Steelworkers Local 67

TRUTH IN ACTION PARTY PROMISES NOT FULFILLED

To the Editor: It's time to look at the truth about the machine called Truth in Action. Here is the truth.

This machine is owned, operated and under the absolute control of one man.

Its purpose—Complete control of Nameoki Township so as to have a strong bargaining position in the affairs and elections of Madison County.

The method—Keep in office only those who follow blindly, elevate those who are ambitious enough to give away principles for support, and eliminate any who tend to be independent or think for themselves.

Examples—Not one time in four years has any member of the present Town Board ever been voted against by the people in motion or proposal of the machine. This is a matter of record.

If they are being supported by the machine on this basis alone; one "No" vote on any motion and they would have been gone.

The machine is supporting a man to assess your property for the purposes who has a full-time responsible position with a large St. Louis firm.

He is also president of the Granite City School District, whose demands for your tax money increase with every year.

He is presently a candidate for re-election to this position and is campaigning for these two jobs at the same time.

This brings to mind two important issues:

1. This machine knows full well that if their candidate is elected to both jobs, a citizens' lawsuit will be filed to enjoin him from holding both these elective offices.

No man should assess your property on the one hand, and preside over the spending of your tax money on the other hand.

This makes way for either a court-ordered vacancy or a resignation, leaving the machine to hand-pick an assessor. Their choice is a person loyal to them, but who could never ever hope to be elected to any office as a candidate. Carl Macios is a stand-in candidate.

2. If, by some incredible form of reasoning, the courts allowed Macios to hold these two conflicting jobs, the taxpayers must consider this: The Granite City School Board under Macios has long complained about taxpayers in Nameoki Township being underassessed.

This board, made up mainly of Granite City residents, says Nameoki does not pay its fair share of school taxes.

Since the school tax rates are the same in both townships, the only way to change this is to increase the assessments.

We do want an assessor, who owes his position as president of the School Board to Granite City members, to assess your property?

Here is the action: Four years ago, we were promised many things. Let's take a look.

1. Taxes—Truth in Action promised to hold down taxes and rates have increased every year; yet, the Town Board brags openly about a $300,000 surplus.

This is incredible. They have taxed you far beyond their needs and then have the audacity to brag about a $300,000 surplus.

They claim they are making the township money by investing your money. In reality they are obtaining that interest for the township by taking it from you in unneeded taxes.

2. Sewers—Talk about truth! The Town Board's election pledge to hold down sewer rates and rates have increased every year; yet, the Town Board brags openly about a $300,000 surplus.

These men know full well the following facts: These sewers depend entirely on state and federal money. These projects are given a priority number.

The four-township sewer project, which includes Nameoki, is a priority number 231 in the state.

The government has flatly stated that only sewer projects are considered this year.

These facts, of which they are fully aware, can be verified through either their own attorney or their own engineer. We are being fed a direct lie.

3. Dobey Slough and drainage—The people of Dobey Slough are hearing of all to those homes are afflicted. You were promised a plan to drain the slough, a plan was drawn and the funds were available.

Yet, through the inept bungling and meddling in other people's private and personal lives, it became impossible for the Truth in Action leadership to drain the slough. This is this simple right-of-way matter.

Result: You, the people, not Truth in Action, must go, but in hand, to Granite City asking for help.

4. Roads—Four years ago your Town Board and their leaders were bitterly critical of a road budget of approximately $70,000. The very words were that $120,000 a mile was utterly ridiculous and wasteful, and that it was probably being spent to finance their opposition's election.

This year they cheerfully announced that their road budget would be $100,000, and $30,000 per mile for the same roads. This is fantastic.

The roads are certainly no better than ever. The road department has become a haven and financial refuge for the party faithful. Any way to expedite they wait until one week before election to start working on it?

5. Sewerage—The Granite City School District, whose demands for your tax money increase with every year.

SUPERSTORE OPEN TODAY. Local shoppers began getting their first look at a new kind of Kroger

Kroger Superstore Opens; Spacious, Modern Facilities

Local shoppers got their first look at a new kind of Kroger store when the company's 30,150-square-foot "superstore" at 3401 Nameoki Road opened its doors at noon today.

Kroger St. Louis Division Vice-President Charles W. White said, "Consumers in the 1970s have different shopping needs and wants. This new kind of supermarket is planned to fulfill those expectations and provide the kind of shopping service they want."

The new Kroger superstore is big—about 50% larger than is normally considered a good-size store, White noted.

"It is spacious, and yet warm and friendly. Part of the feeling comes from the departmentalized treatment of various sections, such as wine, produce or delicatessen," White explained.

"But also it's the impact of color. Supermarkets have traditionally been white or pale pastel inside. Here the colors, even down to the cases, are strong earth colors—green and gold and bittersweet."

"Wooden beams and golden lights accent and dramatize the greatly expanded variety of products offered shoppers. Everything is keyed to the shopper," White reported.

"This new superstore contains almost twice the number of items available in a standard supermarket.

"Even a quick trip through the superstore confirms that a statement."

"There are complete sections devoted to ethnic foods, such as Mexican, Chinese, Japanese and Kosher, offering such delicacies as the S&W Gourmet Foods."

"An assortment of health foods is there, such as Sunflower Seed Soup, Sea-Salted Soybeans or Suna Sesame Oil. A special wine and liquor department offers both import and United States products."

"Mouthwatering sights and scents beckon shoppers to the delicatessen and the nearby complete handicraft baked foods department.

"In the delicatessen, which is topped by a wood-shingle roof and accented with the golden glow of lighted panels, prepared foods of all kinds are ready to carry home. There is traditional cole slaw or chopped liver."

"There are luncheon meats of every variety; tenderly pink center slices of roast beef, succulent sausages, cheese to suit every taste, from the mildest to the most aromatic and pungent. Ribs and chickens turn lazily on a barbecue spit, sizzling as they brown."

"The handcrafted baked foods department is like a transplant from an English Tudor village with its beamed cross-hatched windows. It offers a fascinating variety of breads and sweet baked foods, planned for everyday as well as party-time."

"The wider varieties of products reach into every section of the store, from Kroger's own People's Choice beef—U.S. Department of Agriculture inspected and graded—to produce and to canned goods."

"In the produce department there are neatly pre-packaged carrots or oranges or apples. On shelves, shoppers will notice more brands and more sizes, from 8-oz. cans to fruits and vegetables in the giant 10 size—25 servings. Or how about pickles or salad dressing by the gallon?"

"Shoppers will also find a complete assortment of greeting cards, set off in its own corner and including gift wrappings and carrying gift wrap."

"Kroger has found," White continued, "that shoppers do not like to go to a supermarket only for food, and then to another store to buy cards, cocktail napkins or gift wraps. A third stop might be needed for a baking pan, kitty litter, or a game to answer that ever-present question, 'What did you bring me, Mommie?'"

"The items we have added to larger stores such as this are keyed to the kitchen, to the home, and to the family life as well as to greater shopping convenience," White said.

"They're just as much a part of a modern supermarket as apples and sirloin steak."

Paul Carr is manager of the new Kroger superstore. He is a 15-year Kroger veteran who was previously manager of a Kroger in East St. Louis.

12 Fellowships Offered In Special Education

Twelve summer fellowships have been allocated by the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the Special Education Department of the Education Division at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The stipends, which have a value of up to $1,200 each, will be awarded to three students in each of four areas of study: mentally handicapped, learning disabilities, socially maladjusted/emotionally disturbed and early childhood.

Applications for the fellowships may be obtained at the office of William R. Whiteside, chairman of the Special Education Department, SIUE.

Whiteside said the applications must be returned to his office by Saturday. The selection of fellowship recipients will be made by the university with the approval of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Recipients will be notified of the awards no later than May 1, according to the state office.

Whiteside said that summer session fellowships are for purposes of in-service and continuing education preparation and will be awarded to teachers who wish to work toward certification or temporary approval in special education work. He said priority will be given to those who attach a note from a school administrator stating that the teacher will be employed as of September 1973 to teach a class in the area for which the training is received. Preference also will be given to applicants who are on temporary approval at the present time, or new in the field of special education, Whiteside said.

Under OPSI guidelines, each award is for a maximum of eight weeks. The award recipient receives a stipend of $75 per week. The university receives $75 per week which applies toward payment of the student's tuition and fees. If the tuition and fees exceed $600, the additional amount is paid by the student.

Miss Linda Eddy Married In Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Linda Louise Eddy, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dean Eddy of Kenton, Ohio, became the bride of Benedetto Randazzo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fano Randazzo of St. Louis, on March 2 at the First United Methodist Church in Kenton.

The bride resided with her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Bowers, 2646 Cleveland Blvd., before her marriage.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon were the Rev. James Duval and the Rev. Charles Jones.

Escorted to the altar by her parents, the bride chose a gown of ivory lace designed in a princess style. A large collar edged in ruffled lace was accented with grosgrain ribbon and long streamers. The lace sleeves terminated at the wrists in wide ruffled cuffs, and a ruffled bow encircled the hemline.

She wore an ivory lace half-hat to secure a veil of silk illusion. She carried a white Bible, used by her mother at her wedding, topped with blue and beige Vanda orchids.

Miss Anne Bruce of Cincinnati, Ohio, the maid of honor, wore a linen gown fashioned in shades of light blue, ivory and brown. She held a bouquet of Vanda orchids and white and yellow mums.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, John Randazzo, of St. Louis. T. Bruce Eddy, the bride's brother, served as usher.

Following the wedding reception at the Chautau Club, the newly married couple left for a wedding trip.

The former Miss Eddy, a graduate of Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio, is a member of Sigma Alpha Tau Sorority. She is associated with SUX, Baer and Fuller in St. Louis, where she is an assistant buyer.

Mr. Randazzo was graduated from Southeast Missouri State College at Cape Girardeau. He also is an assistant buyer at the St. Louis department store.

Included in the pre-nuptial festivities were luncheon showers given by Mrs. Robert Ehlen, Mrs. Lester Ward, Mrs. Donald Ehlen, Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. Clayton Carman and Mrs. L. A. Black of Kenton, Ohio, Mrs. Earl Lewis of Granite City and Mrs. Santo Randazzo, Mrs. Angelo Randazzo and Miss Rose Randazzo of St. Louis.

The couple is residing in Granite City.

MRS. BENEDETTO RANDAZZO, whose wedding took place at the First United Methodist Church in Kenton, Ohio. She is the former Miss Linda Eddy, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Eddy of Kenton, Ohio. The bride resided with an aunt, Mrs. W. W. Bowers, 2646 Cleveland Blvd., before her wedding.

MRS. GARY BAUMGARTNER, the former Miss Jo Ann Meyer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Meyer, 3152 Rodger Ave., was married Saturday evening at St. John United Church of Christ.

Miss Jo Ann Meyer Becomes Mrs. Gary Baumgartner

Miss Jo Ann Meyer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Meyer, 3152 Rodger Ave., and Gary F. Baumgartner, son of Mrs. Delores Baumgartner, 1060 Ermenda Drive, Florissant, Mo., exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening at St. John United Church of Christ, 2901 Nameoki Road.

To provide the setting for the early evening ceremony arrangements of white mums were used to decorate the altar with two pairs of branched candelabra, accented with greenery and white bows, on either side. Hurricane candelabra with burning tapers illuminated the white carpeted aisle.

Mrs. June Branding, sang, "Till," "Sunset," "One Hand, One Heart" and The Lord's Prayer, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Irene Barick. Mrs. Albertine Weygandt on the harp and Mrs. Victoria Starks, violinist.

The Rev. Paul Surbey officiated at the double ring ceremony at 5:30 in the evening.

For her wedding, the bride chose an exquisite ivory peau de soie and Alencon lace gown designed with a fitted bodice featuring a wedding ring neckline enhanced with a sheer illusion yoke.

Appliques of matching lace lavishly accented the bodice and A-line skirt. Lace motifs, etched with pearls, trimmed the Juliet sleeves, formed a wide border at the skirt hem and were repeated on the detachable cathedral length train.

She wore a headpiece created of ivory lace with aurora rhinestones to secure her shoulder-length bouffant veil of ivory illusion. The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of carnations, baby breath, lily of the valley and green foliage.

Mrs. Ann K. Rogers, a sister of the groom, wore a peach chiffon gown fashioned with a sheer yoke, edged with Irish lace, and a high-rise waistline defined with a wide satin ribbon.

Miss Debbie Holman, Miss Roxanne Monroe and Miss Janet Kossman, bridesmaids, wore identically styled dresses, one in peach color and the other two in yellow chiffon. Each wore a picture hat in a shade to match her frock.

All the attendants carried baskets of peach, yellow and mint carnations.

Kimberly Rogers, a niece of the groom, the flower girl, was dressed in a mint green silk organza dress made to match the adult attendants' dresses. She carried a small bouquet of carnations tinted green. Bobby Riese served as the ringbearer.

Attending the groom as best man was Richard Voelkerding. Burce David, Charles K. Rogers, the groom's brother-in-law, and Henry Zebert III were groomsmen. Seating the guests were Barron Ansted, an uncle of the bride and Terry Kalela.

Mrs. Meyer, mother of the bride, selected a Kelly green full-length gown of crepe, made with a fitted bodice and sleeves. A colored rhinestone pin accented the dress and she used gold accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Baumgartner, was attired in a formal style gown of peach knit. The Empire bodice and long sleeves were fashioned of lace.

Guests were received at a reception given at Croston Hall in Madison immediately following the service. Mrs. Baumgartner entertained the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner at her home Friday evening.

After a wedding trip to Tan Tara Resort in the Ozarks, the newly married couple will reside in Florissant, Mo.

The bride, a 1971 graduate of Granite City High School, is a professional free lance model. Her husband graduated from McCluer High School in 1967 and from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he received a bachelor degree in business. He belongs to the Phi Beta Lambda Fraternity and is employed by a railroad.

Both are members of the Rock-Hill Area Scouting Club in Arnold, Mo., and have stayed together for seven years.

Cancer Crusade to Seek Funds

James Heil, Madison County Crusade chairman for the American Cancer Society, announced this week that between 3,500 and 4,000 volunteers will be working for the Society during the month of April.

April is the month which Congress has designated as Cancer Month for the American Cancer Society.

Heil emphasized that all volunteers for the Society will be identified by name tags with the words "American Cancer Society" and the Society's symbol — the red sword — clearly printed on them.

Also, all door-to-door solicitors will be distributing educational pamphlets and plastic red sword pins at each house that they visit. The educational material this year places emphasis on the importance of obtaining an annual checkup, and the fact that over 1,500,000 lives have been saved from cancer because these people went to their doctor in time. Heil said. It also gives a checklist of items that should be included in a complete cancer checkup, and a list of the seven danger signals about which everyone should be aware.

The warning signals are: A change in bowel or bladder habits; A sore that does not heal; Unusual bleeding or discharge; A thickening or lump in the breast or elsewhere; Indigestion, or difficulty in swallowing; An obvious change in a wart or mole; and A nagging cough or hoarseness. If you have any of these warning signals, you should see your doctor right away. Cancer Crusade officers urge.

How to reduce your natural gas fuel bills ...

HOME HEATING

- If you have a forced warm air heating system, check the filters at least twice a year. Clogged, dirty filters prevent the free flow of clean air, and increase gas usage. Also, lubricate the fan and motor bearings once a year.
- If you have a hot water system, oil the bearings of the circulating pump once a year. Also, it may be necessary to drain the expansion tank from time to time.
- Radiators should be vented from time to time to keep them from becoming air-bound.
- Have a qualified heating contractor examine your chimney and flue pipe once a year to make certain they are in good condition and free of blockage.
- Keep fireplace damper closed when the fire-place is not in use.
- Use storm windows and doors to eliminate drafts and save on gas.
- Don't block radiators or registers with furniture or drapes.
- Don't fiddle with thermostat. Most people prefer to maintain an indoor temperature of 70 degrees. Your heating costs will increase by about 3% for every degree above 70 degrees. Also, a furnace will not heat a chilly house any faster if set at 80 degrees than if set at 70 degrees.
- Install weather stripping around loose-fitting doors and windows. However, don't put weather stripping or storm windows on windows as you need a constant supply of air in the area where your furnace is located.
- A thick blanket of insulation beneath the roof or attic floor reduces gas usage. This investment normally pays for itself in a few years through lower heating bills.
- Raise the humidity in the living quarters by using mechanical humidifier or by setting containers of water on warm air registers or radiators. Lower temperatures are more comfortable when humidity is high.

COOKING

- Use less water in cooking vegetables. You get more food value and use less gas.
- Before turning burner on, set the pan on the range.
- Turn the flame to LOW when food starts to cook. Turn the burner OFF immediately when finished.
- Use small burner for small pan. Don't let flame lick up outside of any pan.
- Keep range burners and pilot light clean. Don't use lye or strong chemicals on aluminum parts.
- Use a LOW temperature setting for roasting. This reduces meat shrinkage and saves gas.
- Don't cover your oven racks with aluminum foil. If you cover the bottom of the oven, don't cover the holes. This blocks air circulation to the oven burners.

WATER HEATING

- A dripping hot water faucet can waste gallons of water and plenty of gas. Be sure faucets turn off completely. Repair faucets that won't.
- When drawing warm water, draw from both the hot and cold faucets to get the desired temperature.
- Keep thermostat at the LOW heat setting. Turn to HIGH about ½ hour before doing laundry. Turn control to LOW when laundry is finished.

CLOTHES DRYING

- Never overload your clothes dryer.
- Don't overdry clothes.
- Damp dry clothes that require ironing.
- Permanent press clothes that are dried in an automatic dryer need little or no ironing.

Morrison-Byrd Wedding At St. Margaret Mary

St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church was the scene of the afternoon wedding on March 17 of Miss Deborah Lynn Byrd, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Byrd, 5 Briarcliff Drive, and Army Private Second Class John Edward Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Morrison, 2428 Grand Ave.

The Rev. Robert Thomas Becker performed the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white cristoline and a high collar and tapered sleeves terminating at the wrists in a lace cuff.

The slightly gathered skirt was fashioned of cristoline and enhanced with a wide double ruffle at the hem, extending into a chapel train.

A lace Juliet cap encrusted with pearls held in place a bouffant veil of bridal illusion and she carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies and baby breath.

Mrs. Susan Byrd, a sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor.

of honor and Misses Kathy and Patricia Morrison, the groom's sisters, were bridesmaids.

The honor attendant was gowned in pink floral chiffon over pink satin designed with an Empire bodice, long sheer sleeves with ruffled cuffs and a ruffle enhancing the neckline.

Gowns made in identical style only in blue floral chiffon were selected by the bridesmaids.

Each held a colonial bouquet of multi-colored spring flowers.

Joseph Morrison, brother of the groom, served as best man and the groomsmen were Larry Ellis and Sam Roney.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, parents of the groom, hosted the rehearsal dinner in their home.

Both young people graduated in 1970 from Granite City High School. The former Miss Boyd is employed in the Analytical Department of Granite City Steel Co. Her husband, who is stationed at Fort Gordon, Ga., will depart shortly for overseas duty.

MRS. RANDALL PROFFITT. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pope of Rural Route Two, she is the former Miss Angela Rae Pope. Her wedding took place Saturday evening at the Good Shepherd United Methodist Church.

Angela Rae Pope and Randall Proffitt Wed

The wedding of Miss Angela Rae Pope and Randall Keith Proffitt was solemnized in an early evening ceremony Saturday at the Good Shepherd United Methodist Church, 3035 National Ave.

The altar was decorated with bouquets of multi-colored spring flowers and lighted candles in branched candelabra illuminated the chancel.

David Long presided at the organ for Miss Debby Milton, who sang "How Great Thou Art," "We've Only Just Begun," "Theme from Love Story" and "True Love."

The Rev. Eugene Maritt performed the double ring service at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pope of Rural Route Two, Granite City. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proffitt, 2603 Namooki Drive.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a full-length gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice, featuring a ruffled lace collar and long Juliet sleeves.

Cascading ruffles of scalloped Chantilly swept into a cathedral-length train and created the bouffant skirt. A satin ribbon defined the natural waistline and formed a bow at the back ending in long streamers.

A camelot hat of Chantilly held in place her cathedral-length veil, edged with a delicate lace ruffle, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Mrs. Terry Hamm, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Joy Pope and Miss Regina Proffitt, sisters of the bride and groom and Mrs. Robert Jacoby, the groom's cousin, were bridesmaids. They appeared in identically styled gowns of pink, blue and yellow flocked voile, forming a rainbow of colors.

Their frocks were made in Empire design with round necklines, defined with voile ruffles, and short puffed sleeves. A ruffled flounce formed the hems of the A-line silhouette skirts.

Each girl wore a headband of grosgrain ribbon in her hair to secure a floor-length veil. All carried bouquets of multi-colored spring flowers.

Ande Suarez, the little flower girl, wore a gown of white flocked voile designed in similar style to the adult attendants' dresses.

Tracy Proffitt, a cousin of the groom, was the ringbearer. The groom chose his cousin, Roger Proffitt, as best man. Dennis Buckingham, Steven Proffitt and Tom Bearley, the latter two cousins of the groom, Don Hamilton, the bride's cousin, and Dennis Asbeck completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Both mothers were attired in formal-length gowns. Mrs. Pope was in a deep rose colored dress with silver accessories and the groom's mother, Mrs. Proffitt, selected turquoise with matching accessories. Their corsages were of white roses accented with shades to match their ensembles.

Over 200 guests attended a reception at the Long Lake Firemen's Hall after the wedding service.

Members of the wedding party and their families were served a rehearsal dinner at the Central Free Methodist Church on Friday evening.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School. The former Miss Pope is a member of Bethel 43, Order of Job's Daughters. She is employed at Fact Photo in St. Louis.

Mr. Proffitt works at Chemico Metals Corp., located north of Mitchell.

The newly married couple will reside in Granite City.

Jo Ann Radefeld Wed In Evening Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Jo Ann Radefeld, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Radefeld, 2207 Edna St., and Miss Mary Ann Radefeld, 2207 Edna St., was celebrated at 6:30 p.m. March 10 at the West 22nd Street Baptist Church.

Performing the double-ring candlelight ceremony was the Rev. Ralph Graycraft.

James Garner and Miss Pam Doty sang "The First Time I Ever Saw Your Face," "We've Only Just Begun," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Barbara Baker.

For her wedding, the bride selected a daron polyester organ gown with imported beads and lace, styled with a high collar and long sleeves, accented with a high lace collar.

The long full sleeves of lace and organa terminated at the wrists with extra wide cuffs closed with tiny covered buttons. Scalloped lace created wide vertical panels on the A-line skirt and the wateau chapel train.

She wore a Venice lace cap to secure her mantilla veil.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donna Teaschner, a sister of the bride. She wore a dress designed with a white sheer overlay.

Meeting Friday On Neighborhood Restoration Plan

Plans for public meeting of the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society at 8 p.m. Friday, April 2, at the James Milton residence, 2240 Delmar Ave., were announced by Mrs. War Padgett, an address to the Granite City Rotary Club last week.

The meeting will launch efforts to encourage remodeling and modernization of spacious, economical homes situated between Niedringhaus Avenue, Adams Street, 24th Street and Madison Avenue.

Mrs. Padgett, an officer of the Restoration Society, told how her family is improving its newly-acquired residence, achieving nine-room space compared to its previous four-room home.

Other families residing in the near-Downtown area also have started similar efforts, and it is hoped that the practice will spread, resulting in an entirely new image for the neighborhood.

The area includes a number of historic dwellings and buildings, she said.

Activities will be coordinated with national Keep America Beautiful Day Saturday, April 28, Mrs. Padgett reported.

There will be a "spring clean up" campaign, followed by a house walk in the fall to show residences and gardens.

Two Armed Men Rob Madison Liquor Store

Two armed robbers took an unprovoked robbery at the Madison Tavern and Liquor Store in Madison at 6:40 p.m. Thursday.

Witnesses said two armed robbers entered but did not display weapons. The owner, Ed Newman, and barmaid, Lois McAttee, were in a back room.

They stood at the bar a few moments and then one went to the back of the tavern and the other to the back room. There he displayed a pistol and returned with the money in the men then left.

The other man then took a sawed-off shotgun from under his coat and pointed it at the two women and three patrons in the tavern.

"This is it. Put your hands on the counter," according to police reports. He then held his gun on the owner and took her money and had her put the money in the men then left.

The patrons were not robbed and only the cash in the register was taken.

Both men were described as in their early 20s and wearing new yellow construction helmets and new blue denim jackets and jeans over their regular clothing. The man with the pistol was about 5 feet, 10 inches tall and weighed about 200 pounds and the other man was about 5'8" tall and weighed 130, according to witnesses.

Another Clean Air Hearing Postponed

A hearing by the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board of charges against Lipsett Steel Inc. scheduled in the Municipal Building, 2301 Adams St. Thursday night, was postponed at the request of attorney Red E. Sutton of the pollution control office, announced.

The hearing was one of four scheduled by the clean air board after complaints were filed against three industries here by Ervin Hoelscher, technical secretary of the local board. The Lipsett firm was charged with violation of open burning regulations.

An earlier hearing scheduled March 27, involving charges against Ferro Processing Co., was postponed at the request of attorneys who said they needed time to prepare their case.

Two hearings of charges filed against Granite City Steel Co. still are scheduled for tomorrow and Thursday nights at 8 p.m., Dr. Sutton said. The two charges against Granite City Steel allege fugitive dust emissions from the Basic Oxygen Furnace facility in one case, and violation of regulations during Coke Oven operation in the other. The Lipsett hearing has been reset for April 18.

Rates, Fuel Factors in Illinois Power Expansion

Dean Vernon K. Zimmerman of the University of Illinois College of Commerce and Business Administration and Keith R. Potter, executive vice-president of International Harvester Co., were elected to the board of directors of Illinois Power Co. at the annual meeting of stockholders Thursday at Decatur.

Potter, Wheaton, Ill., and Dr. Zimmerman, Champaign, Ill., succeeded O. P. Dorschel of Chicago and H. F. Nichols, Galesburg, who did not stand for reelection to the board.

The board, following the annual shareholders meeting, re-elected Wendell J. Kelley president and chief executive officer of the company which serves natural gas and electricity in a 15,000 square-mile area of Illinois.

Kelley outlined for stockholders the plans the company has to maintain its service through the year 1983 and beyond, stressing that as far as the company is concerned, it will be able to meet the needs and demands of the territory, "provided we are permitted to carry out the program we have planned."

"All concerned," he said, "however, must understand that there are some big factors over which government, not us, has primary control."

Kelley said, "We have a responsibility now to serve warning upon our customers, who happen to be citizens, and upon the environmentalists and upon all branches and agencies of government concerned, that our ability to serve our territories with sufficient energy depends upon three basic conditions that must be granted us by the state and federal governmental agencies which regulate our affairs:

"1. We must be permitted to charge rates that will enable our earnings to attract the hundreds of millions of dollars in new capital we must have to build facilities. The first two nuclear units at Clinton alone, for example, will cost about $800 million.

"2. We must be able to make use of the abundant and cheap Illinois soft coal available to our fossil fuel plants.

"3. We must obtain permission to proceed with plans to finance and build the nuclear stations at Clinton without undue delay."

Kelley said the company is acutely aware of roadblocks and delays that other utilities planning nuclear facilities such as those IP plans at Clinton, have encountered.

"If environmentalists or ecologists succeed in delaying our construction plans as they have elsewhere, it is highly unlikely that we will be able to meet the demands of our territories by the end of the 1980's," he warned.

Other officers elected by the board were H. G. Meenen and E. A. Shultz, senior vice-presidents; R. A. Blakeney, D. R. Davies, W. C. Gerstner, L. N. Talbot, and C. W. Wells, vice-presidents, and D. F. Meek, secretary and treasurer.

Officers appointed by the board were Johnson Kanady, assistant to the president; N. H. Olinger, assistant vice-president; A. E. Gray, controller and assistant secretary, and J. B. Burdick, assistant treasurer. Re-elected to the board of directors by the stockholders, were:

NOTICE TO THE TAXPAYERS OF CHOUTEAU TOWNSHIP!

Press-Record 3-29-73 published a paid-ad by Mr. Dick Sparks, presently Chouteau Township Supervisor, saying he had no control over the Road Commissioner's expenditures. This isn't true. He is the Road Commissioner's treasurer.

Mr. Sparks said in the Press-Record in 3-29 issue the Road Commissioner spent $100,900.87. This is a lot of money for maintenance, of you only consider roads. What about the ditches on both sides?

In the last townboard meeting, Mr. Sparks when questioned on the new road budget — Mr. Sparks said Mr. Estes had turned in a budget of $61,000. When questioned on expenditures for last year, Mr. Sparks said the Road Commissioner had only spent approximately $48,000. How can Mr. Sparks publish an ad in the Press-Record saying the Road Commissioner spent $100,900.87?

Who is he trying to fool? The present expenses must be approved by the Town Board of Auditors. Why can't these bills be read out loud? No matter what is budgeted, only a certain amount of money comes through. If the Road Commissioner spent more than his budget, the whole Town Board is at fault. All of us have expenses. Anyone knows the man that controls the purse strings rules the roost. Mr. Sparks is dodging his responsibilities in not controlling the expenditures of our tax payers money.

Chouteau Township needs constructive leadership that is not being supplied by the present board. If you are looking for better days in your township, I urge you to vote in the election in the April 3 election in Chouteau Township. I Jim Estes had 5 witnesses to Mr. Sparks statement on my expenditures and budget for 1973.

JIM ESTES, Highway Commissioner

Bi-State Transit Gets Funds From City of St. Louis

The Bi-State Development Agency announced that it received Friday a cash subsidy from the City of St. Louis in the amount of $26,025. This check represents the city's allocated portion of a formula previously worked out by government leaders.

These funds, along with those recently received from St. Louis County in the amount of $154,707, the City of Bellefontaine Neighbors, $3,016.79, the City of Olivette, $4,868.74, and the City of Ferguson, $4,362.74, represent the vanguard of other subsidies which have been promised. They have been worked out without any restriction other than that they must be used solely for operating expenses. These monies insure the continued operation of Bi-State buses in the interim until the legislature has passed the long-range funding," a spokesman said.

In loving memory of my father, ROSS DIXON, who passed away March 30, 1970. You think your patients mean to you until they've gone away.

I lost my dad three years ago and I still grieve today. I miss his smile, his gentle voice and his helping hand. But someday we'll meet again in the glory land. So when you think parents are unfair, just sit and think again. Lots of people on this earth don't even have a friend. I miss you, Dad.

Some Easing of New Natural Gas Permits Announced by Ill. Power

Illinois Power Company said Saturday at Decatur that new natural gas permits are being issued in the top two priorities of IP gas service under the rules of the Illinois Commerce Commission.

Made possible new storage facilities, the new gas will go to all applicants in priority one as of March 29 and to all priority two space heating applicants as of that date.

The company estimates that there are on hand about 10,800 written applications for new space heating gas in the 15,000 square-mile area Illinois Power serves. The last release of gas City new applicants was on Sept. 12.

All future requests for gas will be handled the same way as the priority system for service, and on a first come, first served, basis within the priority system as gas becomes available.

Illinois Power found it necessary in 1970 to establish priorities for natural gas because of the limited natural gas supply. IP, as a distributor, draws gas from five pipeline distributors, Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America, Plaquemine Eastern Transmission Corp., Mississippi River Transmission Corp., Trunkline Gas Co. and Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co.

Company officials stressed that the service available for new space heating does not result from any overall increase in gas supply.

New storage facilities constructed and leased by the company allow it to store more gas during the summer to release during cold weather peak days.

News Notes Court Writ Stops Hearings On Air Pollution Charges

A ceiling on beef, pork, veal and lamb prices imposed by President Nixon Thursday night probably will be abolished by late summer or early fall. Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz said Saturday. It is not expected to be extended to cover other food products, he added.

A proposed comprehensive plan for future development in Madison County is to be the subject of a public meeting April 17.

Val. Thewaldt R. Peterson has been named St. Louis district engineer by the Army Engineer Corps, succeeding Col. Guy E. Jester. Peterson is assigned to the office of the assistant Army secretary. Col. Jester will command the 120th Engineering Group in West Germany.

Cong. William Clay of St. Louis on Thursday protested what he said is a plan to close an Army health clinic at 4th and Spruce Streets there and move it to Granite City. Clay said such a move would create hardship on the patients "since there is no public transportation to Granite City."

A temporary writ of prohibition to restrain the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board from conducting hearings on charges of air pollution control violations against Granite City Steel Co. was issued in circuit court at Edwardsville Thursday afternoon.

The hearings were scheduled tomorrow and Thursday nights in the municipal building, 2001 Adams St., on complaints filed against the steel company by Erwin Hoelscher, technical secretary of the local clean air board.

The writ, issued by Circuit Judge Fred Schuman, was served on Granite City Steel Co. last week, and an agreement was worked out under which the company is to conduct a compliance program, the local board has no authority meanwhile to file additional charges, the petition said.

Two other hearings of charges against Ferro Processing Co. and Liggett Steel Products, Inc., scheduled last week, also were postponed at the request of attorneys for the companies.

Chief Circuit Judge Fred P. Schuman halted all jury trials at the Madison County Courthouse today because of inadequate space.

He dismissed 123 jurors who had reported for duty, instructing them to return next Monday.

On March 23 Judge Schuman ordered the County Board to provide adequate space for the courts by April 1 or he would cancel all jury trials and other court services.

The board's building committee presented an offer Friday to expand the court's space in the courthouse into offices occupied by the state's attorney and public defender and provide them with office space by leasing two floors of the old Bank of Edwardsville building across the street.

It would provide the two offices for the courts, one for a juror's room and one for a small courtroom.

But Judge Schuman rejected the offer, explaining that he needs two more courtrooms as well as space for jurors. The judge had complained of jurors being required to share the crowded courthouse halls with witnesses, lawyers, prisoners and others, a condition which he said interferes with justice.

The county budget does not include funds to rent office space but the judge ruled that case to be an emergency and the board at its April 18 meeting is expected to pass an emergency appropriation of $10,000.

Judge Schuman was to confer further with board members today. It was undetermined how many cases were delayed by the order or how long the shutdown will last.

Howard Crabtree, 61, Dies; Ill Four Years

Howard Donald Crabtree, 61, of 1837A State St., ill four years, died at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 11:30 p.m. Sunday. He had been a patient at the hospital two days.

Born in Lucasville, Ohio, Mr. Crabtree moved to this area with his family at the age of 3. He was employed as a pipe fitter 45 years at American Steel Foundries prior to his retirement.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Janice Hovey and Mrs. Ginger Hahn, both of Granite City; two sisters, Mrs. Verlyn Volmer of Granite City and Mrs. Anna Wright of Mentor, Ohio; two brothers, Harold Crabtree of Granite City and Marion Crabtree of Collinsville, and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are being given in the obituary column.

PARKING LOT ACCIDENT
Auto driven by Robert A. Salem, 25 Nassau Drive, and Gary R. Warren, 217 Briarwood Drive, were in an accident at 7:20 p.m. Sunday on the parking lot at the Bellemore Village shopping center.

Judge Schuman set April 27 as date of a hearing on the steel company's petition. The petition charged that the Granite City board was without jurisdiction in bringing charges against the steel company because the Granite City regulations are the same as the state rules.

Since the state brought charges against Granite City Steel Co. last year, and an agreement was worked out under which the company is to conduct a compliance program, the local board has no authority meanwhile to file additional charges, the petition said.

Two other hearings of charges against Ferro Processing Co. and Liggett Steel Products, Inc., scheduled last week, also were postponed at the request of attorneys for the companies.

MORE ABOUT Flood

northern tip of the island, flooding about five homes. The water which seeped through the levees flooded hundreds of acres of farm land in the northern portion of the island and the water level continues to rise despite efforts to stop levees.

The water also covered the only road to the northern portion of the island, threatening to isolate the area.

Army personnel placed large plastic covers over the weak levee portions on the dry side and covered the plastic with snow fencing.

Sandbags then were placed over the fencing to add weight and support.

A particularly weak portion of the northern levee about a half mile west of the Chain of Rocks Canal and about eight-tenths of a mile north of the Interstate 270 bridge was heavily reinforced Friday.

On Friday night, the water began seeping through on both sides of the reinforced area and workers were on the site all night extending the reinforced area.

Friday notified several residents their homes were in danger and advised them to evacuate. Most reportedly stayed.

"We hope that someone does not endanger his life, and we hope if the levee does break we can have enough boats available to get them out," Ferd Segar, a Chouteau Nameoki-Venice levee commissioner, said during the weekend.

On Friday the river, measured at St. Louis, reached 37.5 feet, and Saturday rose to 38 feet.

A height of 38.6 feet was reached yesterday and today the river is blowing fast.

Predictions are for 39.2 feet tomorrow and 39.5 feet Wednesday. The crest Friday could reach four feet just below the 40.28 feet reached in 1961.

Levees already had broken at Old Monroe, Mo., and the main levee at West Alton, Mo., broke at 5 a.m. today, despite intense efforts by volunteers to strengthen the barrier.

Winds reaching 15 miles an hour this morning further endangered other levees on the Missouri side of the river as well as Chouteau Island, by pushing large quantities of water against the weakened levees.

The river is much wider than normal, and the current is swift, particularly when the wind is blowing fast.

Pleas for more volunteers continued during the weekend and this morning from the Corps of Engineers, Civil Defense and other groups.

One call Friday to Madison Explorer Post 104 brought 35 volunteers who sandbagged on the island all night. Many returned several times during the weekend.

Volunteers from the Tri-City American Red Cross Chapter have been providing food services on a round-the-clock basis in the island area since Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Mildred Meelan, secretary at the local Red Cross office, said.

Also at the flood scene the last four days were Granite City Civil Defense Director Victor H. Koenig and local civil defense workers, it was learned.

The local Salvation Army's mobile canteen unit is providing relief services to sandbagging crews and other volunteers in the West Alton, Mo. area.

There is considerable apprehension among Quad-Cityans who own boats docked at harbors on the Missouri side.

Chouteau Supervisor Sparks Says Politicians Attracted By Sewer Job, Shared Funds

Walter Sparks, supervisor of Chouteau Township and sewer re-election tomorrow, commented during the weekend on his opponent's campaign emphasis on a future building boom in Chouteau Township.

Sparks said, "I don't believe the people in our township are naive enough to believe these things happened overnight, as Mr. Tindell indicated. He keeps insisting he is construction superintendent of a construction firm, which does not mean he has any control over the making of company decisions."

"He only carries out orders that have been prepared by someone else."

"My opponent says Chouteau should get sewers in the near future. I wonder how he knows this? He has never attended a sewer meeting, nor discussed sewers with me, and I am chairman of the Sewer Planning Commission and have as much knowledge of the situation as anyone."

"I do not make reckless promises because I know I can't keep them. But I will promise for sure if I am your supervisor that when sewers do get in, there will not be a bunch of political hangers-on on the job for the benefit of the politicians in our township."

Supervisor Sparks continued, "I agree it is up to the engineering firm to make good design, but I know it will be up to the citizens and I to see that we get the kind of job we pay for."

"Our Town Board has already notified the public that we intend to have a building program using revenue sharing funds, which will not cause any increase in their taxes."

"My opponent keeps harping about the fact that we pay approximately $180 per month for all our office space. This amount would not even pay a janitor, much less the lights, heat and insurance, which are included in the rent."

"Also, he proposes to have a secretary on duty 9 to 5, four days per week, four hours on Saturday. My secretary works four days per week now, plus most any time night or day when anyone wishes to call for assistance."

"The rest of us town officials have someone in our office and home to answer to people's problems night and day. I don't know how anyone could expect better service."

"He says he is going to do something about our streets. Apparently, he doesn't know that this is the sole responsibility of Mr. Estes."

"Also, if he is going to use revenue sharing money to fix streets, where is he going to get money for building all the buildings he talks about?"

"I hope Chouteau Township has a building boom, but not until we are ready for it. We will only add to the problems we already have with our sewage and drainage."

"Also, I am glad to see him acknowledge that he is the hand-picked candidate of Mr. Estes and Mr. Doerr, because more and more people every day are learning of their method of operations and disapprove of them."

"According to what I hear about the caucus, you were either their candidate or you didn't get nominated."

Throughout the years, when we had to struggle along—trying to make ends meet with the small amount of taxes we got—few people were interested in taking part in township government."

"Now, since it looks like we may have a bigger sewer job going and our revenue sharing money to spend, the politicians want to move it. I wonder why?"

"If you elect me, I promise your township business will not be conducted in Williams' Tavern or the In-Town Tavern in South Roxana," Sparks concluded.

Sacred Heart Scene of Welser-Daniel Nuptials

Miss Nancy Kaye Daniel, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Daniel, 2441 Edison Ave., and Kurt W. Welser, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Welser, 116 Springfield Ave., Mitchell, were united in marriage in an evening ceremony on March 23 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The Rev. Daniel Flynn officiated at the double ring service at 7:30 before an altar adorned with arrangements of lilies and gladioli.

Mrs. Margaret Crawshaw presided at the organ as Janice Huggins sang several wedding selections.

Guests were received at a reception immediately following the ceremony at Long Lake Firemen's Hall in Pontoon Beach.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a full-length gown fashioned of peau de soie, featuring a fitted bodice accented with white satin ribbon and insertion lace.

The lace and ribbon trim outlined the curvilinear waistline, enhanced the neckline and edged the A-line skirt and chapel train. Long, full lantern sleeves were fitted with wide cuffs at the wrists.

She wore a headpiece of lace delicately etched with seed pearls to secure her classic fingertip veil of bridal illusion and she held a sweetheart bouquet of white roses encircled with white daisies.

Maid of honor, Miss Sophie Kaczorek, and bridesmaid, Miss Inga Welser, a sister of the groom, wore identical dresses created with white bodices made with square necklines and short puffed sleeves.

High Iron, Scrap Exports Create Domestic Shortage

Government failure to curb soaring iron and steel scrap exports is creating a domestic shortage of these vital raw materials, increasing current inflationary pressures and threatening the well-being of a substantial portion of the nation's steel industry.

This was the warning members of the American Iron and Steel Institute presented in testimony prepared for delivery before the International Trade Subcommittee of the House Banking and Currency Committee.

"The Institute appeared in support of amendments which would give the Secretary of Commerce broader powers under the Export Administration Act of 1969."

William Stapleton, vice-president of purchases for Inland Steel Co., and chairman of AISI's critical materials supply committee, predicted a five million ton shortage of ferrous scrap this year.

This, he said, is because both domestic demand and export demand are at record highs. He also noted that export demand has been climbing at a much faster rate than demand from domestic mills—and that the scrap shortage will exist despite increased scrap processing capacity in this country.

One effect of this scrap demand boom at home and abroad has been a 50% increase in U. S. scrap prices in just over a year, according to Stapleton. Nearly two-thirds of the total increase has occurred since November, he noted.

By mid-December, he said, it became clear to the steel industry that the criteria for short supply export controls set forth in the Export Administration Act—short domestic supply, abnormal foreign demand and inflationary cost—existed in the case of ferrous scrap. Accordingly, the industry recommended to Commerce Secretary Frederick B. Dent that scrap exports be limited to seven million tons this year.

Commerce, Stapleton said, is continuing to study the situation, but as yet has taken no action to prevent unlimited ferrous scrap exports.

Such exports, which rose 15% last year to 7.5 million tons, are expected to reach 12 million tons in 1973, he predicted. This would be an increase of 60% in one year.

According to Stapleton, the $10 per gross ton rise in scrap prices since November "will inflate costs of domestic scrap consumers by $300 million in 1973. Another increase of the same magnitude which almost certainly will occur if scrap exports are not limited will double that amount to $700 million."

"Thus," he continued, "the steel and foundry industries already have experienced a substantial inflationary scrap cost impact over the past several months, placing individual companies in a very difficult financial position at a time when most of their other costs are also accelerating."

Failure to obtain government action to limit the current record exports of ferrous scrap "confirms our previous contention that procedural changes are badly needed," Stapleton said.

Gov. Walker Pledges During Groundbreaking Ceremony to 'Make Sure SIUE Goes Forward'

With a symbolic turning of the first shovel of dirt, Gov. Dan Walker officially signaled the start of construction Thursday afternoon for two new classroom buildings at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The governor called for greater utilization of the "resources of our universities" as he pledged his continued support "to make sure SIUE goes forward."

Gov. Walker was joined in the groundbreaking ceremonies by State Treasurer Alan Dixon, Ivan A. Elliott Jr., of Carmi, chairman of the Board of Trustees of SIUE; Harold R. Fischer of Granite City, vice-chairman of the SIUE board; and Dr. John S. Rendleman, president of SIUE. Fischer is vice-chairman of the First Granite City National Bank.

The occasion marked the first groundbreaking for an academic building at SIUE in 10 years. For the governor, it was the first such event since he was inaugurated in January.

The ceremonies were held at the Peck of the Peck, a room building on the construction site. The new buildings will provide 160 new laboratories, 38 classrooms, 29 seminar rooms, 38 tutorial spaces, 10 observation rooms, 8 studios, 237 offices for faculty and staff, and 29 general offices.

Total cost of the two structures will be approximately $12.4 million, and they are expected to take two years to complete.

J. J. Altman Co. of East St. Louis has the general construction contract with a bid of $8,189,910.

Gov. Walker recognized SIUE for "the high place which this university has achieved ... in view of the crowded situation which has existed for the past several years."

The local university has had a critical classroom space shortage since 1971, when a statewide space survey by the Board of Higher Education showed SIUE with a calculated full-time equivalent student capacity of 6,886 students.

Actual full-time equivalent enrollment then was 18,874, creating an overcrowding of 3,888 full-time equivalent students.

Gov. Walker also referred to his program for "greater utilization of the resources of our universities."

He cited "the great assemblage of talent present in our universities," and said "we should use this talent in state government."

The governor said he hopes to set up the machinery to make it possible to use institutions such as SIUE for research studies when a department of state government needs information on a new project.

He said he believes there are many dedicated students, as well as faculty, who would be resourceful in the program.

"It will utilize the resources presently available to us, and it will save the taxpayers' money," the governor said. Debby Sivka of Edwardsville, "Miss SIUE" presented the governor with a placard commemorating the occasion.

State Treasurer Dixon paid tribute to "the great involvement of SIUE in community affairs," and he expressed appreciation to the governor for his support of higher education. Dixon, a native of Belleville, helped sponsor legislation beneficial to SIUE while he was a member of the Illinois General Assembly.

President Rendleman said the new classroom buildings "will serve to foster great aspirations." He cited the governor's "resolute character and concern."

"He is an astute scholar of the law, and his career shows careful reflection in getting positive, creative action," Dr. Rendleman said.

"He would have us all honor the law as he honors it, so that we can have a productive society flowing from an honestly peaceful public order. I think I can say that the buildings which will rise near this site will serve to foster such aspirations."

A large crowd of students, faculty and other citizens of the area attended the 2:30 p.m. Thursday ceremony. Elliott handled attention to the "enthusiasm of the students and faculty on this campus."

John Richardson, president of the University Senate, was master of ceremonies. He introduced a group of 20 dignitaries, representing the contractor, architect, building trade and the university.

Richardson compared the classrooms space situation at SIUE with "a can of sardines" and said the new buildings will provide "the release which has been needed for so long."

President Rendleman said, "These two great buildings bode well for the future of the SIUE campus; we will now be able to move more effectively in fulfilling the mission the community demands of us, especially as far as basic instructional functions are concerned."

"These buildings will stand as an inspiring challenge to the dedication that must constantly motivate everything the university does."

Limitations on Abortions Urged by Health Officials

Dr. Joyce S. Lashof, acting director, Illinois Department of Public Health, late Thursday recommended that limitations be placed on abortions. She urged that standards for public health that should be observed.

"The United States Supreme Court has ruled that abortions are legal, and we must obey the order of the court. However, we can try to set the limitations, conditions, and qualifications for abortions."

"The recommended standards, which I hope will be adopted by the legislature, are designed to prescribe the environment in which abortions are performed and to protect the health and welfare of the women of this state."

"I am asking members of the medical profession and administrative and medical personnel of our hospitals to take steps to implement these guidelines even before legislation is enacted," Dr. Lashof said.

Illinois presently has no valid statute governing abortion. Included in the statement are recommendations that abortions be performed only on inpatient basis in licensed hospitals; and that no abortion be performed during the third trimester (after the 24th week of gestational age) except for therapeutic abortion necessary "to preserve the life or the physical and mental health of the mother."

The statement includes recommended standards for out-of-hospital first trimester abortions.

The recommendation further stipulates that the affiliated hospital be close enough to have sufficient emergency capability to enable the patient to be transferred, admitted and begin receiving hospital care within 15 minutes.

She explained that the recommendations resulted from a series of meetings between members of the state health department, the Illinois State Medical Society, Illinois Hospital Association, the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology, and the Illinois Nurses Association.

POLITICAL VANDALISM Vandals placed numerous stickers for Mayor bumper stickers on the steps and front porch of the home of John Rose, 2420 Adams St., and nailed posters to a tree in his front yard and to a tree in the front yard of Mrs. Robert Grey, 2424 Adams St. They reported at 11:15 p.m. Friday.
